

CAPITAL AND LABOUR.

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour.

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the True Witness.

Sir—There is not an old Irishman in my parish that does not know that John of Tuam, celebrated the "Golden Jubilee" of his episcopacy on the eighth of June 1875; and that if spared to the church and to Ireland for he is needed to both, until the fifth of next June, he shall witness the fifty third anniversary of his consecration as coadjutor to the Bishop of Killala, in the year 1725. From this it will be seen that the "Lion of the Fold of Judah" together with being the greatest, at least in the estimation of all Irishmen both priests and people at home and abroad, is at the same time the Dean of the episcopacy of the Universal Church. This is at least some gratification to dear old Ireland, who feels proud of her noble son. May God save them both. But this is not all, next on the roll of the prelates of the church after the name of John McHale, comes with perhaps two exceptions that of John Baptist Purcell, Archbishop of Cincinnati, another distinguished Irishman who was raised to the episcopacy on the 8th of March, in the year 1833. From this Mr. Editor, it is to be hoped that you and your other conferees of the press, will conclude that Monsigneur Feron, Bishop of Clermont, France, who was not elected bishop until the 20th of January, 1834, is far from being the oldest bishop in the Church—since the death of the sainted Pius the IX. as erroneously stated.

Appropos to your remarks ament the late celebration of our NATIONAL FESTIVAL, in the principal cities of this "Canada of ours" I think it is time that you and all other Irishmen who regard Ireland as their native land, and St. Patrick as its Apostle to raise your voice and wield your pen against politicians and politicians ere you allow an ancient festival with all its glorious traditions to become a bye word to the nation, by its prostitution to the interests and vanity of presidents and politicians as has been lately the case, and notoriously so both in Ottawa and Quebec.

THOSE HORRID NUNS!

WHAT THEY DO.

Two of the female convicts whose time has just expired in the Halifax Penitentiary, took their departure yesterday for Ottawa, in charge of certain Sisters of the "Good Shepherd," who supervise and direct the home for fallen women in that city, and who have been for some time in Nova Scotia seeking aid for this good work of redemption for the most helpless of fallen humanity.—Hal. Chron.

MEETING OF IRISH CATHOLICS.

THE QUESTION OF REPRESENTATION IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

A meeting of Irish Roman Catholics was held last evening in the office of Mr. J. J. Kehoe, for the purpose of organizing a political club, to secure, if possible, a better representation in the House of Commons from the Province of Ontario. Amongst those present were Hon. John O'Connor, Mr. Starrs, M. Kavanagh, W. Kavanagh, J. B. Brannen, W. Nagle, W. McEvela, Ald. O'Keefe, P. Conway, D. E. Devlin, D. Smith, W. McCaffrey and J. J. Kehoe. Mr. Starrs presided. After a brief discussion a resolution was adopted, affirming that the Irish Catholics had not sufficient representation in the House of Commons. It was suggested that the election of officers should be proceeded with. Ald. O'Keefe and Mr. Nagle objected, as they considered the meeting was not large enough to warrant such action. The officers, however, were elected as follows:—Hon. John O'Connor, President; M. Starrs, Vice-President; J. J. Kehoe, Secretary. A committee was appointed to draft rules and by-laws, after which the meeting adjourned.

THE FRENCH CANADIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—This society is hard up for funds. It is $6,000 in debt and a meeting has been called to consider the situation. The public is always ungrateful.

ADDRESSES TO THE POPE.—The Catholic Senators and Members of the Commons, at Ottawa, have signed an address to Pope Leo XIII, congratulating him on his accession to the Throne of the Holy See. Hon. Hector Langvin is the prime mover in this matter.

LIVE STOCK TRADE WITH LIVERPOOL.—The Liverpool Post by last mail says:—"It is expected that the trade in Canadian live stock will assume very important dimensions this season, as the number of animals at present ready for shipment to this country is quadruple that of last year." We learn that Messrs. Hopper & Co. are preparing a large shipment of cattle to England, by the St. Lawrence this spring.

A MUCH MARRIED OLD MAN.—A few days ago at the Parish of St. Raymond, in the County of Portneuf, an old man named Thos. Trudel, 72 years of age, was married for the sixth time. First he married at Quebec and went immediately to St. Raymond, living quietly for three years. His first wife died leaving a son now 40 years of age. After six months single blessedness he married a second, but his wife only lived ten months. Tired of young women, he, after a few months rest, married a widow, with whom he lived for eight or nine years, when a missionary from the United States, happening to arrive at St. Raymond, informed Mde. Trudel number three, that her husband was alive in one of the missions visited by him. So Mr. Trudel set to work to get unmarried by the bishop. Six weeks after he married, with the permission of the bishop, a young girl who was his first cousin. No. 4 lived thirteen months, and within two years was succeeded by No. 5, who managed to live 20 years with him. She died in April, 1875. While the one from whom he had been unmarried died in the month previous. So two of his wives died in the same spring. One would have thought he had experienced enough of the condition of matrimony, but after being single for near three years he has led to the altar a blushing widow, between 50 and 60 years of age, named Madame Plamondin.

EPPE'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected cocoa, Mr. Eppe has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Sold only in Packets labelled—"James Eppe & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, 48 Threepenny Lane, and 170 Piccadilly, London, Eng."

When Whittier wrote: "I heard the tread of pioneers, Of nations yet to be; The first low wash of waves, where soon Shall roll a human sea!" He was particularly happy in forecasting the great future which is rapidly opening before our Western States and Territories. In the great expanse of territory included in the land grants of the Union Pacific Railroad—3,000,000 acres in Nebraska alone—there is room for mighty empires of humanity and a hundred generations of growth and progress.
