EUROPEAN IMMIGRATION

TO THE CANADAS AND WESTERN STATES, BY TRAIN & CO.'S LINE.

Table listing shipping routes and prices for Enoch Train & Co. Destinations include Albany, Buffalo, Kingston, Columbus, Montreal, C.E. via Vermont and Canada Railroads, Toronto, Hamilton, Cleveland, Sandusky, Dunkirk, Toledo, Detroit, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, and Milwaukee.

Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above-named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years of age, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steamer passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our splendid Line of Packets; provisions at sea according to the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steamer passenger of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day. Two oz. of Tea; 5 oz. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2 1/2 lbs. Navy Bread; 1 lb. Wheat Flour; 2 lbs. Rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants), are furnished with six pounds of bread stuff per week, the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of pre-paid passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid Certificates, either directly or through our agents.

On the arrival of any of our ships in the outer harbor, we immediately dispatch an agent on board, to give pre-paid passengers the necessary instructions regarding their route westward.

Bedding and utensils for eating and drinking, must be provided by passengers; and those going to the Canadas, or Western States, must furnish their own provisions from Boston.

T. BAIN & Co., of BOSTON, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of Immigrants, that as owners of the only Liverpool and Boston Line of Packets, they have determined, that their Immigration business shall be conducted in their own name, on their own responsibility, and by themselves or their immediate servants.

Table listing ship names and captains: STAR OF EMPIRE (Capt. Brown), WESTERN STAR (Capt. Thayer), FRANK PIERCE (Capt. Marey), PRESIDENT (Capt. Cummings), CHARLOTTE OF FAYE (Capt. Knowles), STAFFORDSHIRE (Capt. Richardson), PARLIAMENT (Capt. Sampson), NORTH AMERICA (Capt. Dumbur), DANIEL WEBSTER (Capt. Howard), PLYMOUTH ROCK (Capt. Caldwell), SUNBEAM (Capt. Putnam), LEVI WOODBURY (Capt. Nickerson).

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

OFFICES: ENOCH TRAIN & Co., Nos. 37 and 38 Lewis Wharf, BOSTON, Mass. TRAIN & Co., Merchants, No. 5 India Buildings, Water Street, LIVERPOOL, England. TRAIN & Co., Passage Office, Nos. 115 and 119 Waterloo Road, LIVERPOOL, England. TRAIN & Co., No. 121 St. Patrick Street, CORK, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are all AMERICAN BUILT, and constructed expressly for Packets. They are all New and of the First Class, being built on the most improved principles, and of the best materials. They possess all modern improvements which conduce to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence. The Captains have been carefully selected as first rate sailors and men of humanity, and an experienced Surgeon is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and the most popular conveyance to America. As Train & Co. have made such arrangements in Liverpool as will protect their friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practised there, they believe that those who pre-pay passages cannot but see the advantage of being able to engage with a respectable House, on favorable terms, for a well known Line of magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which they so often experience, when they engage with Agents who are but slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles uniformly honorable and humane, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfillment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the Very Rev. THEOBOLD MATHEW, Cork, Ireland.

We also subjoin the following testimonial from the Right Reverend JOHN BERNARD FITZPATRICK, Bishop, Cathedral, Boston (copy): "Boston, Jan. 22nd, 1849. I am happy to testify, from personal knowledge, that the firm of Ship Owners, known in this City of Boston, under the name of 'Enoch Train & Co.' is composed of gentlemen of tried and acknowledged integrity, and that implicit reliance can be placed in their fidelity to accomplish all that they may promise, to those who have occasion to make any contract with them. (Signed) JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Bishop of Boston."

Those applying by letter or otherwise for pre-paid Certificates of Passage, should in all cases express the names and ages of the persons sent for, with their address in full, containing the names of the Town, Land, or Village, nearest Post-Town, and County, together with the address of the person to whose care a letter is usually sent.

N.B.—Those making inquiries for pre-paid Passengers, are requested to furnish the Date and Number of their Receipt.

USEFUL & CHEAP CATHOLIC BOOKS FOR GENERAL CIRCULATION,

Just Published and for Sale by the Subscribers, (SECOND EDITION.) NEW LIGHTS, or LIFE IN GALWAY. A TALE OF THE NEW REFORMATION. By Mrs. J. SADDLER. 18mo., 443 pages, muslin, 2s 6d.

EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"New Lights, or Life in Galway, is an original tale by Mrs. Sandler, and upon the whole the best and most finished of her powerful and most interesting tales in illustration of Irish history and Irish character. The New Lights are the converts to Protestantism obtained by soup and stir-about, and the story is intended to illustrate what is called the New Reformation in the West of Ireland. The characters are well drawn and clearly marked, and never, save in her rich and varied, and wholly unpretending conversation, have we ever seen Mrs. Sandler to so great advantage as in the whole plan and conduct of this story. The work is marked by genuine Irish simplicity and earnestness, love of fun and touching pathos, violent passion and melting tenderness of heart, sweetness of temper, supernatural patience and resignation, strong faith and ardent piety. Mrs. Sandler is a true Irishwoman, and has a most wonderful faculty of compelling us, even in spite of ourselves, to love and honor her countrymen and countrywomen. We recommend her book most warmly to all classes of readers, but especially to those who are pretending that Ireland is about to apostatize from the faith. An Irishman is no Irishman when not a Catholic."—Brownson's Review.

"Mrs. Sandler is much admired as a writer of tales, and this new production of her gifted pen will be sought for with avidity. One of its aims is to expose the proselytizing efforts made in Ireland during the late famine."—Catholic Herald.

"Mrs. Sandler has contributed many interesting volumes, original or translated, to the growing Catholic Library of America; but the last is the best of all. We cordially recommend the work to all our readers."—American Crier.

"We have read this work with great satisfaction, and regard it as one of Mrs. Sandler's best efforts. The picture of Irish sufferings and Irish firmness is true to life. It is a clear and true expose of the proselytizing system recently pursued in Ireland, by the establishment of Soup Houses and other tricks, to bribe the starving poor from their ancient faith. The Irishisms are correct, and display in the writer an intimacy with Irish character, which is rarely met with in books on Ireland. The work can be read with interest, profit and pleasure."—Dulwich Catholic Mirror.

"This is a new work from the pen of a lady already well and most favorably known to the Catholic public throughout the world speaking the English language, and whose contributions to Catholic literature we always welcome with delight."—St. Louis Shepherd of the Valley.

"We welcome the work before us as one which paints with artistic truth and reflects faithfully the innermost feelings of our people in joy or in sorrow."—New York Truth Teller.

"We are sorry we are unavoidably precluded from giving extracts from this exciting work, which we hope to do on a future occasion. In the meantime we earnestly recommend such of our readers who wish to enjoy a real literary luxury for half a dollar, to apply at once to Mr. Doyle or Mr. Donnelly, in the Arcade, where the volume is for sale."—Toronto Mirror.

"The question need not now be demanded, 'Have we an authoress amongst us?' for in truth, we have; and one whose reputation occupies a more elevated position than the flood of trashy writers whose work now inundate our literature, and are lauded far beyond their merits by those who should know better. Mrs. Sandler has written several well told tales; but we consider the present work the best she has produced."—Montreal Transcript.

"As a description of Irish character and manners, most graphic and true to nature, we cannot but speak in very high terms of 'New Lights.' We doubt not that this work will have an extensive sale."—Montreal Pilot.

"This tale is dedicated to the People of Ireland, and is written in a spirit of deep sympathy for their unfortunate condition. With regard to its peculiar religious tendencies, we have no opinion to express. As a merely literary production, it will add new lustre to the already high reputation of the gifted authoress. Some of the delineations are graphic in the extreme, and the dialogue throughout is truthful and dramatic."—Montreal Star.

"'New Lights' is in every chapter elegant and readable, and in several places reminds us of Professor Wilson's 'Lights and Shadows of Scotch Life' than which we could pay neither author nor authoress a higher compliment."—Montreal Commercial Advertiser.

"This new work from the pen of Mrs. Sandler, will we doubt not add to the already well earned reputation that the lady enjoys, as the authoress of several charming Irish tales, in which the manners and national characteristics of her countrymen are delineated with great power, and admirable fidelity."—Montreal True Witness.

"This, the best production of Mrs. Sandler's clever pen is most appropriately dedicated to the people of Ireland. It is without exception or question, the most felicitous picture of the state of Ireland that has been drawn by any artist of the present day. We know of no writer of Irish romance except poor Bunin, who has so thoroughly comprehended or honestly exposed the real causes of Irish discontent, wretchedness, and insubordination. If the scene were laid in Carolina, instead of Conemara,—if the victims were negroes and not of European complexion—Savages and not civilized beings—Pagans instead of Papists—then indeed might Mrs. Sandler hope to eclipse Mrs. Stowe in English popularity, and have her apotheosis proclaimed at Stafford House, as it is the press of this country will fling the 'cold shade of silence' over her admirable tale."—London Catholic Standard.

DOCTRINAL AND SCRIPTURAL CATECHISM. By the Rev. Pere Gallot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sandler. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices: 12mo. 440 pages, half bound, 1s 10d; muslin, 2s 6d; to schools and colleges we will put them at $25 per 100.

The CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN INSTRUCTED in the Sacraments, Sacrifices, Ceremonies, and Observances of the Church. By Way of Questions and Answers. By the Most Rev. Dr. Challoner. 18mo. flexible muslin, 1s 3d; muslin, or sheep binding, 1s 10d.

THINK WELL ON IT; or, Reflections on the Great Truths of the Christian Religion, for every day in the month. By the Most Rev. Dr. Challoner; 32mo. muslin, 1s. NEWMAN'S SERMONS to Mixed Congregations, 3s 9d. Do. LECTURES on Anglicanism, 3s 9d. WISEMAN'S SERMONS on DEVOTION to the HOLY EUCHARIST, to which is added his Lecture delivered at Leeds, 1s 0d. A Book which should be adopted in every Catholic School: CATECHISM of GEOGRAPHY. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This will supply a want long felt by Catholics, as their children were obliged to study geography, if at all, from books which represented the people of every Catholic country as ignorant, superstitious, and revengeful. 12mo. of 140 pages, price only 1s; or, 7s 6d per dozen.

D. & J. SADDLER & Co., Corner of Notre Dame and St. Francois Xavier Streets, Montreal. For Sale by H. COSGROVE, 34 St. John Street, Quebec. August 16, 1853.

BELLS! BELLS!! BELLS!!!

THE Subscribers manufacture and keep constantly on hand, all sizes of Church, Factory, Steamboat, Ferry, Locomotive, School House and Plantation Bells, with the best description of Hangings.

These Bells are made from the best stock, and the small sizes undergo the same process in manufacturing as Church Bells. An experience of thirty years, with a great many recent improvements, and an entirely new method of casting, enables us to obtain the most melodious tone, combining also, an extraordinary vibration.

Nearly 1,000 Bells have been cast and sold from this Foundry, which is the best evidence of their superiority. We have 15 Gold and Silver medals at our office, which were awarded for the "best Bells for sonorosity and purity of tone." We pay particular attention to getting up Peals or Chimes, and can refer to those furnished by us. Our establishment is contiguous to the Erie and Champlain Canals, and Railroads running in every direction, which brings us within four hours of New York. Cash paid for old copper. Old Bells taken in part pay for new ones, or purchased outright. Town Clocks, Levels, Compasses, Transits, Theodolites, &c., for sale, of superior workmanship. All communications, either by mail or otherwise will have immediate attention.
