

UNITED STATES.

Col. Allen's Kentucky Battalion of Militia has disbanded at New Orleans for want of means of transportation to Nicaragua.

The People's Theatre and eight adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire at Cincinnati, on Friday, June 14. Nothing was saved from the theatre.

Wherever the New England race, and the New England religion have spread, there you find a population deeply imbued with religious fanaticism, persuaded that their own race and their own religion are infinitely superior to every other under the sun, filled with contempt for foreigners, and imbued, above all, with an almost ineradicable, hereditary hostility to Catholicity, which, under the name of Popery they have been taught to abhor, fear and despise from their earliest childhood. The New England States and all the States settled by New England people, are dotted all over with ministers, and sprinkled all over every week with religious news-papers, the chief burden of whose exhortations in the pulpit, and on the printed page, is to inculcate the most deadly hatred of Popery. This perpetual inculcation of hostility to the Catholic Church, as the first duty of Protestants, cannot but have an immense effect upon minds that never hear any thing else; and, unfortunately, it addresses itself, to one of the worst feelings of our nature, and the most easily fanned into a flame. The New England religion is itself the narrowest creed that men calling themselves Christians perhaps ever professed; and it has produced in the people of that section a narrow, prejudiced, illiberal, sectional, intolerant and persecuting character, that lends itself readily to the propagation of a scheme for proscribing the Catholic religion and its professors. One of the New England States, New Hampshire, to this day retains in its constitution or statute-book (we forget which) an enactment which excludes Catholics from holding office. Massachusetts has refused, for years to charter a Catholic college, and Connecticut has lately passed an unconstitutional and utterly invalid law, confiscating at one fell swoop the entire church property of the Catholics in that State.—St. Louis Leader.

It is idle to talk of Union, or peace, or truce with Sumner, or Sumner's friends. Cataline was purged itself compared with the Massachusetts Senator, and his friends are no better than he. They are all (we mean the leading and conspicuous ones) avowed and active traitors. The sending the Congressional Committee to Kansas was done with the treasonable purpose of aiding the rebellion in that Territory. The Black Republicans in Congress are at open war with Government; and, like their allies, the Garrisonian Abolitionists, equally at war with religion, female virtue, private property and distinctions of race. They all deserve the halter, and it is vain indulging the expectation that there can be union or peace with such men. Sumner and Sumner's friends must be punished and silenced. Government, which cannot suppress such crimes as theirs, have failed of its purpose. Either such wretches must be hung or put in the penitentiary or the South should prepare to quit the Union. We would not jeopard the religion and morality of the South to save Union that had failed for every useful purpose. Let us tell the North at once, if you cannot suppress the treasonable action, and silence the foul, licentious and infidel propagandism of such men as Stephen Pearl Andrews, Wendell Phillips, Beecher, Garrison, Sumner, and their negro and female associates, let us part in peace. We would like to see modesty, female virtue, common morality and religion, independent of Government. The experiment at the South, to leave these matters to the regulation of opinion, works admirably. We are the most moral, religious, contented, and law-abiding people on earth and are daily becoming more so.

HIGH PLACE ROBBERY.—The criminal records of the world are full of reports of highway robberies; and the highway robber has been held up to public execration for his outrages upon private rights. But to our mind he is not a whit worse than your high-place robber, who, under the name of confiscation, robs the poor of their inheritance, without redeeming the abomination of his crime even by the tinsel virtue of the brute courage of his tumpike comrade. There is a volume of truth in the following paragraph from the Catholic Telegraph:—"Whenever an unprincipled despot or a rickety dominant faction wants to raise money without driving the people to rebellion, there is sure to be a confiscation of church property. God has no friends among lawyers to push his claim; the people shrug their shoulders, and thank Providence there is some one else to rob besides them; the clergy lose nothing, because they never had more than a living; which is still guaranteed to them; the poor, who profit principally by abbey and monasteries, cannot produce any excitement by their complaints. And so the robbing can be effected safely. Unprincipled men are fond of a long loan; and finding God a patient, they forget that he is an exacting debtor."—New Orleans Catholic Standard.

PARTY SPIRIT.—When Germans and Irishmen were murdered by wholesale on Bloody Monday in Louisville, not an "indignation meeting" was held in any city or village of the United States. When Senator Sumner was caned, Yankeedom was convulsed with wraith. All men are created free and equal!

ECCLIASTICAL HISTORY OF IRELAND.

BY THE REV. THOMAS WALSH.

THIS Work embraces the Annals of the Irish Church, from the earliest period of Ireland's conversion, to the doctrines of the Holy Roman Catholic and Apostolic faith;—the succession of the Irish Hierarchy to the present time; the labors of Irish Saints and Missionaries in foreign countries;—the Monastic establishments of each County—the plunder of the same; the persecutions of Ireland under the Danes; and finally, those of England; with brief notices of the Bishops and Clergy, who suffered death in defence of the ancient religion. The Rev. Author will wait in person, and solicit the names of subscribers to the work. The present will be the only opportunity of procuring the volume, as the stereotype will be transferred to Ireland in a short period, and as it is not given to the trade. Montreal, June 25.

INFORMATION WANTED,

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE AFFLICTED

Dr. McLane, the inventor of the celebrated Liver Pills, used these pills for several years in his practice, before he could be induced to offer them to the public in such a manner as to make them known throughout the country. This learned physician felt the same repugnance that all high-minded men of science feel in entering the lists against those unscrupulous empirics who obtrude their useless nostrums upon the public, and rely upon a system of puffing to sustain them. Convinced, however, of the real value of the Liver Pills, and influenced by the plain dictates of duty, the Doctor finally sacrificed his delicate feelings on the altar of public good. His great medicine has not disappointed the expectations of the medical practitioners, at whose instance he was induced to forego his qualifications. From every quarter do we hear the most gratifying accounts of its wonderful curative effects;—the East and the West, the North and the South, are alike laden with "tidings of great joy" from the afflicted.—These wonderful Pills have completely conquered that great scourge of America, the Liver Complaint.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. McLane's Liver Pills, also his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.
