Mercantile Summary.

UPWARDS of $100,000 has been spent at Wiarton for timber of different kinds during the winter just closed.

CALIFORNIA wine merchants are, according to a Chicago paper, forcing the season by rushing out large quantities of their product on account of the coming advances in freight rates to the east.

DURING the quarter ending March 31st there were forwarded from Buctouche, N.B., twenty-six, and from Richibucto, N.B., four carloads of potatoes for the United States markets.
This represented 16,374 bushels, valued at $6,303.

NEW YORK's banking facilities have been increased by thirteen new banks in two years.
This represents a total addition to the banking capital of that city of $5,350,000, the greater part of which is intended to meet the requirements of up-town merchants, manufacturers, and tradesmen.

A UNIQUE business card is that of a Frankfort, N.Y., stove dealer. On one side is the following inscription:

How $2,000 WAS MADE.

$1,000

By Attending to Your Own Business,

$1,000

By Letting Other People's Business Alone.

Says the St. John Sun: The schooner David Sprague arrived at Digby on Wednesday, 11th, with 7,000 lobsters. These were packed in crates and shipped by rail and steamer to Boston, where they arrived alive and kicking.
The season for lobsters so far has been good,
the above cargo representing a week's catch.
The schooner is fitted with a tank containing salt water, into which the lobsters are turned as they are collected from the traps. The industry, according to present prices, is a paying one.
