HARD TO PLEASE.

The Salvation army stopped in front of a saloon in East Portland and began singing "It is water we want, not beer," and the saloon-keeper turned the hose on them. And yet they were not happy. It is hard to please some people.—Norristown Herald.

EQUAL TO THE OCCASION.

"Who is that horrid whiskey bloat?" asked a lady of an acquaintance, while they stood viewing the guests at a fashionable reception.

"Which one?"

"That one with the red moustache and awful nose. Don't you see?"

"He is my husband."

"Oh," laughed the lady, "I see that you are not sensitive," although she saw vengeance in the eyes of the insulted lady.
"Several nights ago a friend made a similar remark about my husband, and I became very angry. I declared it would anger any woman, but my friend said that you, having the best husband in the world, would not care, and I wagered a pair of gloves that you would, but you see I have lost. I hear that your husband is spoken of as an available candidate for Governor. How clever he must be."—Arkansaw Traveller.
