

Article V

Export of Benefits

Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement,

- (a) benefits payable under the legislation of one Party to any person described in Article III, including benefits payable by virtue of this Agreement, shall not be subject to any reduction, modification, suspension, cancellation or confiscation by reason only of the fact that the person resides in the territory of the other Party, and they shall be paid in the territory of the other Party; and
- (b) benefits payable under this Agreement to a person who is or who has been subject to the legislation of both Parties, or to the dependants or survivors of such a person, shall also be paid in the territory of a third State.

PART II

PROVISIONS CONCERNING THE APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

Article VI

- 1. Subject to the following provisions of this Article,
 - (a) an employed person who works in the territory of one Party shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of that Party; and
 - (b) a self-employed person who ordinarily resides in the territory of one Party and who works for his or her own account in the territory of the other Party or in the territories of both Parties shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party.
- 2. An employed person who is subject to the legislation of one Party and who is assigned to work in the territory of the other Party for the same employer having a place of business in the territory of the former Party shall, in respect of such
