

- No. 4      Economic Sanctions: Foreign Policy Foil or Folly?, by Robert T. Stranks * (May 1994)
- No. 5      Recent Capital Flows to Latin America: Too Good to Last?, by Richard E. Mueller * (August 1994)
- No. 6      Not Out of the (Bretton) Woods Yet: Exchange Rate Disequilibria, Trade and Suggested Reforms, by James McCormack* (February 1995)
- No. 7      Takin' Care of Business: The Impact of Deficit Reduction on the Trade Sector, by James McCormack* (March 1995)
- No. 8      The Trouble with Numbers: Military Spending in Developing Countries, by James McCormack* (June 1995)
- No. 9      Unfinished Business: Towards a Global Environmental Organization, by Rob Stranks* (July 1995)
- No. 10     Alternative Financing for the United Nations: An Idea Whose Time Has Finally Come?, by James P. Walker* (December 1995)
- No. 11     Traders in Tennis Shoes: Derivatives, Volatility, Risk and Supervisory Issues, by James McCormack* (May 1995)
- No. 12     Prospects of Further Reforms in India, by I. Prakash Sharma* (December 1995)
- No. 13     Restructuring Japan's Financial System: Looking Beyond the Storm, by Julie K. Fujimura* (February 1996)
- No. 14     Look Before you Leap: "Core" Labour Rights, by Robert T. Stranks* (April 1996)
- No. 15     Trade in the '90s: An Overview of Canada's Performance, by Julie K. Fujimura* (June 1996)
- No. 17     Environmental Refugees?, by Robert T. Stranks* (January 1997)

* available in french/disponible en français