

Commercial Division of the Embassy of Canada in Mexico City promotes trade with Mexico. There are several trade commissioners at the Embassy, and there is a satellite office in Monterrey. Trade commissioners can provide a range of services including introducing Canadian companies to potential customers in Mexico; advising on marketing channels; assisting those wishing to participate in trade fairs; helping identify suitable Mexican firms to act as agents; and compiling credit and business information on potential foreign customers.

Note: to telephone Mexico City, dial: 011-52-5 before the number shown below. For contacts in other cities in Mexico, consult the international code listing at the front of your local telephone directory for the appropriate regional codes, or contact the international operator.

International Trade Centres have been established across the country as a convenient point of contact to support the exporting efforts of Canadian firms. Co-located with the regional offices of the Department of Industry (DI), the centres operate under the guidance of DFAIT and all have resident trade commissioners. They help companies determine whether or not they are ready to export; assist firms with marketing research and market planning; provide access to government programs designed to promote exports; and arrange for assistance from the Trade Development Division in Ottawa and trade officers abroad. Contact the International Trade Centre nearest you.
