

Behan, Sam, convict, death of, 4285. See also references generally in discussion on Penitentiaries, Conditions

Belec, Mr. Charles (Pontiac)

Budget, 2973. Beneficial effects of empire trade agreements; Canada the fifth trading nation in the world; expenditure by dominion for unemployment relief since 1930; dominion contributions to relief expenditures in Pontiac county, 2973; Sheenboro-Kipawa highway; comparison of expenditure in Pontiac county by Department of Public Works under Bennett and King governments, 2974, 2975; back-to-the-land movement; new settlement at Laferte in Pontiac county; securing for the farmer a simplified debt structure; Pontiac county, the largest gold-producing county in the province of Quebec; molybdenite production; gold and copper discoveries in Rouyn district; mineral wealth and production in the Rouyn district; modification of the tax on gold, 2976

Belgium

Attitude towards protective tariff in Canada, 2655
Comparative rates of duty on imports from Canada, 1921 to 1930, 544
King Albert of, tributes to memory of, 687
Translation services in, 989, 1016, 1278

Bell, Mr. C. W. (West Hamilton)

Ancient Foresters' Mutual Life Insurance Company bill, 1204, 2013
Bathurst, N.B., harbour dredging, 853
Canadian National Railways, auditors, 847
Indian Affairs, estimates, 2777

Bell, Mr. L. G. (St. Antoine)

Allen divorce bill, 1757
Briggs divorce bill, 1855, 2013
Earp divorce bill, 2999
Freeman divorce bill, 1855, 2013
Hanson divorce bill, 3580
Maybee divorce bill, 2638
Meldrum divorce bill, 2471
Paradis divorce bill, 1855, 2013
Prudential Trust Company, 459, 666, 1448
Richardson divorce bill, 2638
Smart divorce bill, 2471
Watson divorce bill, 2471, 2979
Zavitz divorce bill, 2807

Belloc, Hilaire, "On Translation," 1112-13

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B. (Prime Minister; Secretary of State for External Affairs; President of the Privy Council)

Address in reply, 59. Nothing in speech of leader of opposition to indicate that country is in the throes of the greatest depression of history; Mr. Ramsay MacDonald on world depression in trade; story of Canadian trade the story of all the countries of the world; attacks made on accuracy of unemployment statistics, 59; greater progress made by Canada towards prosperity than in any other country in the world; autocratic powers given to president of the United States; Mr. Marcossou on "North of the N.R.A.", 60; speeches of the mover and seconder of the address; results of the recent by-elections, 61; confidence of business people of the country in government; criticism by leader of the opposition of trade and unemployment statistics; increase in revenues over last year; continuous improvement in trade since May of 1933, 62; accuracy of reports furnished by bureau of statistics; increase in our industrial production as compared with increases in other countries; steel production in 1932 and 1933; index figures of wholesale prices for 1932 and 1933; increases in the prices of common stocks in Canada as compared with other countries, 63; increases in production of different commodities; comparison of wholesale prices of Canadian farm products in 1932 and 1933; world return to pre-war conditions about the time of depression, 64; percentage of gains since early in 1933; problem of unemployment and references of leader of opposition to statistical returns, 65; utilization of employment figures of industrial firms by statistics bureau; steady decline in unemployment from March to October, 1933, 66; increase in industrial payrolls between April and December of last year; employment in manufacturing industry, 67; marked improvement in retail sales; recognition by League of Nations of work of Canadian bureau of statistics; empire trade agreements; East Fife by-election and reported transatlantic conversation of Liberal candidate with Mr. Mackenzie King, 68; negotiation of trade treaties with