

interest would accumulate, and he would be asked to pay tax only when he received the income. It would be his money. The question of what happens when the man or woman dies has to arise, and the answer is very simple: it goes into the estate, and the estate is taxed.

The Deputy Chairman: Order please. It being five p.m., it is my duty to rise, report progress and request leave to consider the bill again later this day.

Progress reported.

GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION ACT

MEASURE TO PROVIDE FOR SEPARATE DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES

Mr. James A. McGrath (St. John's East) moved:

That in the opinion of this House, the government should consider the advisability of bringing in legislation to amend the Government Organization Act providing for a separate Department of Fisheries.

He said: Mr. Speaker, on January 1, Canada will join those countries which will declare a 200-mile limit for the purpose of fisheries management. That is the newest, and in my opinion, probably the most compelling argument for the government to reinstitute a separate Department of Fisheries. Probably at no time in our history as a nation has fisheries assumed the importance to our country it has with the advent of this
