ADVICE.

FROM THE PASTOR OF THE

First Baptist Church of Halifax.
1876.

SECOND PASTORAL LETTER.

My dear Brethren & Sisters,

I have now been here three months, and during that time I have had opportunity to observe the character of my congregation, and their general conduct, and I am gratified to find that they are, in almost every respect, a good people. They are, however, not perfect, and there are some who need rebuke and correction. There are others who are in error, and need to be corrected. There are still others who are in danger of falling away from the truth, and need to be warned. But there are also many who are faithful and obedient, and who are worthy of commendation. I hope that you will pray for me, that I may be enabled to do my duty as pastor, and that you will support me in my efforts to bring you back to the truth.
