

GENERAL INDEX.

A

ADAMS, John Q., United States minister at St. Petersburg, correspondence with the Russian government respecting American traders on the north-west coast, 275. Secretary of state of the United States; negotiations with Spain on the southern and western limits of the United States, 316. Correspondence with the Russian minister at Washington on the ukase of 1821, 332. Instructions to Mr. Rush, United States minister at London, on claims of the United States, in 1823, 340. President of the United States; message recommending the adoption of measures respecting Oregon, 344.

Aguilar, Martin de, voyage and supposed discovery of a great river on the north-west coast, 91.

Alarcon, Hernando, voyage up the Californian Gulf and the Colorado River, 58.

Aleutian Islands described, 39. Discovered, 135.

Alaska described, 36. Discovered, 132.

America. This name first given to Brazil in 1508. Never used by Spanish government and historians until recently, 45.

Anian, Strait of, said to have been discovered by Cortereal, probably the same now called Hudson's Strait, 45. Voyages in search of it, 76. See Urdaneta, Ladrillero, Maldonado, Fonte, Vizcaino.

Archer, William S., his speech in the Senate of the United States on the bill for the occupation of Oregon, 388.

Arteaga, Ignacio, voyage, 125.

Ashley, William H., conducts trading expeditions from St. Louis to the Rocky Mountain regions, 357.

Asiento de Negros, or treaty by which the British monopolized the slave trade of Spanish America, 99, 321.

Astoria established, 296. Described, 299—313. Ceded to North-West Company, 303. Taken by British, 304. Restored to the United States, 309. Burnt, 313. See Pacific Fur Company.

Atlantis, Island, placed by Bacon on the north-west coast, 94.

B

Baranof, Alexander, governor of Russian America, his character, 271. Finds Sitka, 270. His mode of conducting negotiations, 302. Seizes part of California, 327. Attempts to seize one of the Sandwich Islands, 328.

Becerra, Diego, voyage from Mexico by order of Cortes, 52.

Benyowsky, Augustus, a Polish exile in Kamtchatka, performs the first voyage from that country to Canton, 138.

Bering, Alexander, first voyage from Kamtchatka to the Arctic Sea, 129. Second voyage, 129. Third and last voyage, 130. Reaches the American continent, 131. Shipwreck and death, 133.

Bering's Strait discovered, 129. Described, 4.

Berkeley, Captain, rediscovers the Strait of Fuca; murder of part of his crew off Destruction Island, 171.

Billings, Joseph, engaged by the empress of Russia to explore the North Pacific, 162. His voyage produces no valuable results, 221.

Bodega y Quadra, Juan Francisco de, first voyage, under Heceta, from Mexico, along the north-west coast, 117. Importance of his discoveries, 123. Second voyage, under Arteaga, 125. (See Maurelle.) Commissioner to treat with Vancouver at Nootka, 231. (See Nootka Convention.) Letter to Captains Gray and Ingraham, 242, 443. Death, 255.

Brobdingnag, placed by Swift on the north-west coast, near Columbia River, 94.

Broughton, William, sent by Vancouver to survey the lower part of the Columbia River, 247. Unfairness to the Americans, 248. Sent to England, 249. Commands an exploring expedition in the North Pacific, 256. Finds Nootka Sound deserted, 257.

Buchanan, James, secretary of state of the United States, negotiations with Mr. Pakenham, minister of Great Britain at Washington, 399, 400. Concludes treaty, settling the boundaries west of the Rocky Mountains, 402.

Bulfinch's Harbor described, 22. Discovered by Captain Gray, of Boston, 235. Examined by Vancouver's lieutenant, Whidbey, 246.

C

Caamano, Jacinto, voyage in the North-West Archipelago, 241.

Cabeza-Vaca, Alvaro Nunez, journey from Florida to the Californian Gulf, 65.

Cabot, John, and Sebastian, voyages, 45.

Cabrillo, Juan Rodriguez, exploring voyage from Mexico, and death, 62.

Calhoun, John C., his speech in the Senate