

Source Readers in American History

SELECTED AND ANNOTATED BY

ALBERT BUSHNELL HART, of Harvard University

IN FOUR VOLUMES. ILLUSTRATED

No. I.	Colonial Children	• • •	Price 40 cents
No. II.	Camps and Firesides in the Revolution.		Price 50 cents
No. III.	How Our Grandfathers Lived	•	Price 60 cents.
No. IV.	Romance of the Civil War	•	Price 60 cents.

Source Book of American History

FOR SCHOOLS AND READERS

Edited by ALBERT BUSHNELL HART, Ph.D.

Editor of "AMERICAN HISTORY TOLD BY CONTEMPORARIES," etc.

Cloth. 12mo. 60 cents, net

"A volume that we have examined with close attention and commend with confidence. In about four hundred pages of text, finds room for something like one hundred and fifty examples of original material of our history, from the voyages of Columbus to the Spanish-American War. The selections are judiciously made, edited and annotated; the introductory chapters for teachers are of the most helpful sort; and the book is sold at so low a price that no secondary school in which American history is taught can find a reasonable excuse for not employing it as an adjunct to the regular manual." — The Daily

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

64-66 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

BOSTON

CHICAGO

SAN FRANCISCO

ATLANTA