

A very valuable work, and one much required. The British American Reader should find a place in every Canadian school.—Commercial Advertiser, Montreal.

The selection of pieces seems well made, with much tact and sound discretion. There is nothing with which any can be offended, much from which all may derive both profit and amusement.—True Witness, Montreal.

The selection of pieces in this book is, we think, made with judgment, and the whole well conveyed in a very pleasing manner, much information about America generally.—Montreal Witness.

Mr. Northwick has so ably accomplished the task he undertook, that very many readers, who have long passed the school-boy era of life, will find his work a most useful book.—Montreal Transcript.

We cordially recommend it to teachers, whether of public or private schools.—Montreal Pilot.

The work is carefully edited, and will no doubt soon take its position as a standard Canadian Class Book.—Family Herald, Montreal.

This is the very book for our Canadian youth. We wish Mr. Northwick every possible success.—British Whig, Kingston.

We have no hesitation in recommending its general use, and doubt not it will secure ready acceptance in all British America.—Bytown Gazette.

From its pages we receive much valuable information, historical and statistical, in reference to our own country, and its general selections are all that could be desired in a Reading Book for our public schools.—Peterborough Review.

We trust to see this book take the place of many of the foreign works now in use throughout the country.—Eastern Townships (Granby) Gazette.

We have the utmost reason to be proud of its selections: it is, indeed, almost a miracle of books for the young.—Richmond County Advocate.

This work is well done, and we trust that the attempt to nationalise our school books will meet with abundant success.—Stanstead Journal.

LOVELL'S SCHOOL BOOKS.—The whole of these have been got up expressly for Schools in British North America, and John Lovell, the enterprising Montreal publisher, will not relax his exertions until every seminary of learning in the Province is supplied with books from a colonial source.—Reporter, Halifax, N.S.

We are strongly of opinion that the efforts of a publisher who specially prepares a series of books for Colonial use should be encouraged, and would therefore suggest that teachers generally should examine the merits of these text books, and if found suitable, to countenance and urge their speedy adoption.—Colonial Standard, Picton, N.S.
