

RAND BROS.

In the Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Pig and Poultry Classes, the entry must in every instance be made in the name of the bona-fide owner, and unless this rule be observed, no premium will be awarded, or if awarded, will be withheld. If any person shall exhibit any animal or bird, of which he is not the bona-fide owner, he will forfeit any premium which may be awarded him.

In all the other classes entries must be made in the names of the producers or manufacturers only, and by such producers themselves in person or their agents, who must have special authority for doing so, and shall produce the authority in writing if so required by the Judges. Those who are not manufacturers or authorized agents may exhibit, but cannot compete for the prizes offered. If any person, other than the authorized agent shall enter an article for competition, as produced or manufactured by himself, when it has not really been so, he shall forfeit any premium which may be awarded the article.

A merchant who sells a line of goods which are also sold by other merchants cannot be considered as the agent for such goods.

This rule not to apply to animals, but to all kinds of grain, vegetable produce, fruit, manufactured articles, &c., to which each additional specimen would necessarily be precisely similar to the first.

EXTRA ENTRIES.

Every article must be entered under some one of the headings in the regular list when possible, but if any article is of a distinct character from anything specified in the list, it may be entered in the class with which it most nearly corresponds.

On the entry of each animal or article a card will be furnished the exhibitor specifying the class, the Division, the number of the entry, and the name of the exhibitor and residence, which card must remain attached to the animal or article during the exhibition.

In all cases the right is reserved to reject entirely or accept conditionally any entry or application, and under no circumstances will articles which are offensive by reason of their
