

ANALYTICAL INDEX

	PAGE
§ 2. Practical character of Aristotle's work : Effect of new conditions : Attention to natural basis of action : Choice and circumstances : Responsibility . . . . .	86
§ 3. Doctrine of development : Relation to evolution . . . . .	91
§ 4. Justice . . . . .	93
§ 5. The State . . . . .	97

CHAPTER VI

THE COSMOPOLITAN AGE

✓ § 1. The Empire of Alexander : General political conditions . . . . .	105
§ 2. The new culture : Positive and negative elements : Universalism and individualism : Scepticism . . . . .	107
§ 3. Character of institutions : Religion : Ritual and emotion : Eastern influences . . . . .	110
§ 4. Economic developments : Trade-interests and peace : The case of Rhodes : Literary development . . . . .	113
§ 5. Two typical views on politics : Polybius : Cicero : The Law of Nature . . . . .	116

CHAPTER VII

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC

§ 1. The origins : Early Kingship . . . . .	122
§ 2. From monarchy to republic : The struggle for power . . . . .	124
§ 3. Progress of the State under the Oligarchy . . . . .	127
§ 4. Changes in national character : Religion . . . . .	129
§ 5. Greek culture : Law : The slave . . . . .	133