Few ordinary readers pass beyond the first part of Goethe's Faust, but the lecture by Edward Howard Griggs last night in Association Hall on the second part was one of the most interesting of the series. There are only two more lectures in the course, the next being on the 25th inst., the Easter week date being skipped.

EX-CONDUCTOR'S SUICIDE

Was Not Taken Back After Strike of Last Summer.

SARNIA. April 11.—(Special.)—John McDonald, aged 60, committed suicide at the golf links at Christina-street at 8 o'clock this evening, by shooting himself with a revolver thru the right temple. The tragedy was witnessed by three small boys.

McDonald had been employed as a conductor on the G. T. R. previous to last summer's strike, running out of London. He was not taken back by the company when the strike was settled, and despondency at having only occasional employment is assigned as the cause for his act. Last fall he removed his wife and family to Detroit.
