SHERIFF MOTZ OF BERLIN DEAD AT ADVANCED AGE

Was One of Pioneers of German-Canadian Journalism—Prominent in Municipal Affairs.

BERLIN, Ont., Oct. 29.—(Special).—One of Berlin's oldest residents passed away at an early hour this morning in the person of Sheriff John Motz, at the age of 84 years.

The late Sheriff Motz was born in Dierdorf, Prussia, on June 5, 1833. His mother died when he was ten years of age and his father when he was 16. In 1848 he came to Canada, where he settled in Berlin, and was living with his wife, Mrs. Motz, at the time of his death.

Mr. Motz was a well-known figure in the community, and was a member of the Berlin Town Council for many years. He was also a member of the Berlin Fire Insurance Company, and was a prominent figure in the German-Canadian community.

BANQUET TO BORDEN

By Members of the Anglo-American Peace Centennial in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Hon. Robert L. Borden, the new premier of Canada, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday at the Lawyers Club by members of the Anglo-American Peace Centennial. Mr. Borden made a brief address, in which he declared there was no reason why the recent events in Canada should in the slightest degree interfere with the cordial relations existing between the Dominion and the United States.

Among those who attended the luncheon were Oscar S. Saxe, former American ambassador to Turkey; Courtenay W. Benet, British consul-general in New York; Andr. W. Humphrey, general secretary of the Peace Association; and T. Kemmer, Benson, vice-president of the Canadian Club.

After attending a memorial service to the late Edward M. Shepley, the distinguished lawyer, who was a candidate for the senatorship of this state last January, and a personal friend of the Canadian premier, Mr. Borden, accompanied by Mrs. Borden, left this evening for Ottawa. They had quite a number of Canadian callers at the Hotel Belmont during their stay here.
