CUSTOMER MUST SATISFIED

That's our rule. It does not matter whether it's a $3.50 Cap for a child, or a $500 Russian Sable Scarf for a lady, the customer must be satisfied before we deliver the goods. Our absolute guarantee goes with everything we sell. We call your attention again to the fact that we buy all our furs direct from the trapper, and manufacture all our garments on the premises. That means one profit only and the use of fur that has not been picked over.

Some specials are: Furlined coats for ladies $35. Empire Mink Muffs for ladies $40. Special for men, our muskrat - lined Overcoat, with large otter collar and lapels $50. We might mention that last season we disposed of 850 of these popular coats. There is no better value on the continent.

Do not neglect to visit our big showrooms.

The Ashville meeting announced no decision up to this writing on the proposed price limitation, but a report was issued from private sources stating that the crop estimate had been made of 9,588,000 bales. The condition of the crop was reported from the same source at 78.3.

The market, however, displayed no animation on this news and remained unit fluenced by this and private reports of damage from various sources.

The weather map to-day was favorable and private advices from San Antonio suggest some improvement in the crop of that section as a result of lower temperatures and light showers in some directions. The forecast for to-night is for lower temperatures and scattered showers.

Where Brass is Bright. Where Brass is Bright.

The display of the James Morrison Brass Manufacturing Company, Limited, in machinery hall, is most complete, and is visited by thousands daily. A large conservatory fountain with a large nickel basin and colored electric lights is much admired. Conspicuous in the exhibit is a handsome candelabrum and table decoration, fitted with frosted electric light bulbs and mica shades. Those in search of new ideas in brass goods should call and view this display, which they will find complete in every respect.

Those Famous Biscuits. "Where is 'Christie's' exhibit," is eard on every side on approaching or heard on every side on approaching or entering the manufacturers' building. This display, located near the east end of the building, has been a constant source of attraction for thousands who visit the fair. The name of Christie, Brown & Co., Limited, has been so long before the public in the most favorable light, that the interest created by their display is not to be wondered at. Realizing the value of display advertising this company have made a most elaborate showing, their exhibit being easily one of the leading features of the manufacturers' building. Many new, varieties of biscuits, etc., are displayed this year, and the housekeeper in search of new things for the table should call and see this array of delicious creations.

See the Glass Blowers. A tent that will continue to attract crowds until the close of the exhibition is that of the O. H. Johns' glass blowers on the midway. The show is at once interesting and instructive, and visitors should not miss the opportunity to view this wonderful exhibition.

An Improvement in Doors. With the marked advancement made in recent years in the substantial and in recent years in the substantial and artistic fittings for private houses and public buildings the Gilmour Door Company, Limited, of Trenton, have kept well to the fore- Their exhibit is located in the transportation building on the second floor, and no person interested in beautiful doors should fail to visit it. A full and complete line of highly finished woods that could no fail to improve the appearance of any building is shown. Beauty of design and strength of construction is what has been almed at in these creations, and the result obtained leaves nothing to be desired.

The Intercolonial Exhibit. The Intercolonial Railway of Canala have succeeded in creating an exhibit that is attracting the marked atten-tion of the thousands of visitors who daily visit the former art gallery. This Intercolonial reaches some of the most celebrated resorts in the country. Mr. A. E. These include, beautiful art de sions in concert grands, baby grands, miniature grands and transpiring pianos. The warerooms of this house are being enlarged to a point capable of a display of one thousand pianos.

Most Creditable Exhibit.

The display of the Henderson Rolle Bearing Company, in machineny hall, which has been viewed, by many thousands during the exhibition, clearly represents a thoroughly progressive and going concern, the policy of the company being to do rather than to hope to do. The enterprise is protected in Canada by numerous and broad ratents already secured and in the vaults of the company, affording, according to the best legal authorities in the United States, a broad and substantial protec-tion for the invention. The Henderson tion for the invention. The Henderson Roller Bearing Company is thoroughly satisfied with the results of the exhibition. Many orders have been booked for speedy delivery, while the merits of the bearings have become more broadly recognized. It is the intention of the company to exhibit at the Western Fair at London, where fir several years past its exhibit has been a great centre of attraction.

Weston.

Weston horsemen were very successful at Toronto Exhibition. J. T. Farr carried off first prize in the stallion trot; J. M. Gardhouse exhibited four horses and captured four prizes—two firsts, one second and one third—and Mr. Hogate exhibited four hackney stallions and was awarded three prizes. The Weston High School opened this week with the largest attendance of students in its history.

Dr. Hackett, the well-known dentist, has returned home after a two weeks' drive with his father, during which Orangeville, Owen Sound, Southampton and other points north and west were touched. "I never spent a more enjoyable holiday outing," said the doctor it is morning, and he looks it.
