A TEMPTING OFFER.

Quite the largest proposition that has come before the people of Canada during the last twenty years is the project of constructing a ship canal between Georgian Bay and Montreal by way of the Ottawa River. It seems to be a fact that British capitalists are prepared to undertake the project on certain conditions. They will furnish the necessary capital, which is said to be about $25,000,000, on condition that they have a monopoly of the waterway for ninety-nine years, or they will build the canal without the monopoly restriction, provided the Government guarantees a low rate of interest on the cost of construction. The offer of the great enterprise is being made to the Government by the Ottawa River and Montreal by way of the Ottawa River. It seems to be a fact that British capitalists are prepared to undertake the project on certain conditions. They will furnish the necessary capital, which is said to be about $25,000,000, on condition that they have a monopoly of the waterway for ninety-nine years, or they will build the canal without the monopoly restriction, provided the Government guarantees a low rate of interest on the cost of construction.

THE BRITISH DEBT.

New York Tribune: The most sensational feature of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's budget is the proposal to cover the deficit by an increase in the income tax. The permanent fund debt, to increase the public debt is a deplorable thing. But, as we said yesterday, such an increase will not make Great Britain a badly off country, as it is now. Her present debt is, in round numbers, $4,190,000,000. This new loan will raise it to $4,600,000,000, or a total of $8,670,000,000, is proportionately more burdensome than the debt of the United States. The present debt of the United States is $2,500,000,000, or about one-third of the British debt. The present increase of the British debt is, in round numbers, $450,000,000, or about one-fifth of the total. The present increase of the British debt is, in round numbers, $450,000,000, or about one-fifth of the total.

EDISON'S STORAGE BATTERY.

The most definite statement that has yet been made about Edison's new storage battery comes from Mr. W. S. Barstow, general manager of the Edison Illuminating Company of Brooklyn. In an address before the Brooklyn Institute he referred to the new battery as follows: "An entire battery has been invented, and will soon be announced by Mr. Edison. Mr. Edison's battery contains no lead of any kind, the materials composing it are cheap, its weight is only about one-third of the present battery, and its depreciation is very small. The new type of battery will be announced within the next few weeks." It is about time we heard from Edison. As a rule he does not waste his time and something useful ought to be the outcome of his researches during the last year or two. For twenty years past inventors have been in quest of the perfect storage battery. Great improvements have been made from time to time, but the storage battery is still far from satisfactory. If Edison's new battery is as good as he claims, it will be a great step forward. The building of this great work is beyond our capacity at the present time, and we see no good reason why this generation should mortgage its prospects for the benefit of those who come after them. By all means let the Government negotiate with the syndicate and do all in its power to get the work started. If it spends six or seven millions in the enterprise they are entitled to a big profit, and the Government should recognize this fact. At the same time there would be nothing out of the way in the Government stipulating that at certain periods during the life of the enterprise the country should be allowed to work on paying the company a certain liberal percentage over and above the actual capital expended.

WESTERN BANK OF CANADA.

The shareholders of the Western Bank of Canada held their 10th annual meeting at Ottawa on April 19. President Cowan presided and the meeting was a success. The bank during the past year amounted to $4,190,000,000. The dividends for the year were $1,000,000. The deposits of the bank have been steadily increasing during the past year.

THE SEASON FOR PLANTING TREES.

The season for planting is at hand, and everyone should look around his premises to see if they cannot be beautified by a few trees, by a plot of grass, or by flowers. Nothing adds so much to the beauty and comfort of a home as trees, shrubs and vines, and nothing costs less in comparison to the returns. During the next few weeks the streets and lawns of Toronto will be improved by the setting out of thousands of trees and the conversion of acres of clay into beautiful green lawns. Very few can plead poverty as an excuse for failure to plant a tree or two in front of their homes. They cost but little and pay handsomely as an investment. A tree that costs a dollar to-day will add twenty dollars in value to a property ten or fifteen years hence. There is both money and duty in trees. If for no other reason, property owners should plant trees because it will pay them to do so. We are glad to see that the members of the High School Board have arranged to give the pupils a few practical lessons in horticulture and tree planting. One of the most called fads at school, this is one that is not most excusable.

DECLINE OF THE WOOLLEN INDUSTRY.

The country will hold the Government to account for the disaster and ruin that is overtaking the Canadian woollen industry. Every month the situation is getting more desperate. It is a remedy in no way forthcoming. This industry has hit for the first time a financial disaster. The carpet factories are suffering along with the other mills. A representative of the Monetary Times, visited one of the largest Canadian carpet factories the other day and found that about 50 per cent. of the looms standing idle. The woollen industry has been hit harder than any other by the preferential tariff. Other industries that were liable to suffer by a 3 to 13 per cent. concession in favor of Great Britain had been prepared for the change by a previous rise in the tariff in their favor. Not so the woollen industry, which has been ruthlessly sacrificed to gratify the ambition of a few politicians who are slogging over with a sort of morbid loyalty to the Mother Country. The signaling out by the wool industry as a sacrifice for Sir Wilfrid Laurier's meek loyalty to the Mother Country is absolutely indefensible. The Government's general policy is built on protective principles. The Government is getting more and more protectionist every day. Nothing half so radical, from a protective standpoint, was ever perpetrated in Canada. The wool industry is a victim of the tariff and of the Government's policy. The wool industry is a victim of the tariff and of the Government's policy.

He said to-day: "Commercialism is running riot in the United States. The Yankees are coming their ideas and energies into money. The great builders of the country are the money kings necessarily exercise a blighting influence on the morals of public servants, they create all manner of temptations and breed all manner of jobbery."

A few cases were definitely dealt with, but as they only numbered a very small proportion of those applying, the secretary decided not to give any out for publication. Nearly the whole day was given over to hearing deputations, and there was no time during the day when the board room was not crowded to the doors.
