LOCAL MARKET.

Thursday, June 28, 1906. There was a fairly large attendance at the market this morning. The number of buyers, who were seeking to purchase strawberries was large. They were greatly disappointed at the small number of toads that were offered One well-known buyer gives as a reason for the scarcity of strawberries the fact that a couple of years ago the growers lost money, as they sold their berries at 3 1-2c to 5c per box. They then declared the acreage under cultivation would be reduced hence the small crop this season. There was no much change in price in the various lines represented.

Grain—Oats were higher today, selling at $1 20 to $1 23 per cwt. Hay and Straw-Owir; to the rain, may did not sell well today. Prices were lower, at $8 to $9 50 per ton. Straw was dull at $3 per load.

MILLIONS FOR THE DEFENSE

Unwritten Law That Insults Justified the Shooting Likely To Be Quoted.

New York, June 27.—American justice is faced once again with the problem, May wealth be used successfully to cheat the electric chair?

Harry Kendall Thaw, the deliberate slayer of Stanford White, lies in the prison tonight, somewhat sobered and evidently realizing that after all he will have to fight, and fight hard for his life.

The murderer and the man he slew vere alike worth millions of dollars. White built his own fortune, gaining fame and money as an architect. Thaw is the pampered son of wealth.

There is evidence on every hand that money will be spent like water to save Afternoon Sales: C. P. R., 20 at 1593; Montreal Railway, 50 at 2794, 75 at 279; C. P. Already experts in law and insanity are being gathered for the defense of the young man. Insanity is the only legal plea upon which Thaw may escape the dread death chamber of Sing Sing Prison. Whether this plea of itself or in a combination will be exerted to rescue him has not been divulged by the eminent array of jurists who will act in his behalf. Certain it is that an allegation of insanity will play a strong part in the coming fight. A bombshell was thrown into the camp of the millionaire slayer this afternoon when the alienists appointed by the district attorney's office examine into Thaw's mental condition reported to Assistant District Attorney Nott that so far as they are able to determine he is perfectly sane. The report was made with the servation, however, that they still have his physical condition to take into consideration. Thaw would not submit to a physical examination today. The plea will be set up as "unwritten law" that a man is justified in shooting the fellow who tampers with the sanctity of his home. It will be claimed that the dead man got his deserts.
