What the Press Agents Say About the Shows

AT THE GRAND

THE MAID OF THE MOUNTAINS

AT THE GRAND TWICE TODAY.

"The Maid of the Mountains," with the entire London cast and chorus, will be the offering at the Grand twice today, at 2 and 8 p.m. sharp.

In arranging with the estate of George Edwards to bring this piece to Canada immediately following its five years' run in London, the Trans-Canada Theatre, all records for musical comedy runs in Limited, were dependent for the assurance of its success largely upon the sentiment of the returned soldiers who saw it over there and upon their friends who have heard nothing else since the boys came back, but praises of this wonderful musical comedy.

That this dependence was not misplaced has been amply evidenced by tremendous enthusiasm, which the mere announcement that "The Maid of the Mountains," with the London company, was coming here direct from Daly's Theatre.

London, so it promises to break all the records in Canada.

ELISIE JANIS AT THE GRAND MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.
The enormous popularity of Elsie Janis should be further enhanced by her appearance in her new Selznick picture, "The Imp," which opens at the Grand Theatre Monday. It is a far cry from this star's recent picture, "A Regular Girl," which was a light comedy, to her second production, which is a thrilling crook melodrama, but it speaks volumes for the versatility of the star.

In "The Imp," Elsie Janis appears as Jane Morgan, a girl of wealthy parents. A chance blow on the head alters the whole course of her life. It leaves her with the obsession that she is Annie Adams, a famous crook, known as "The Imp." She becomes skilled in thievery and her exploits cause the police to warn her father that she must be kept under close restraint. Dr. Gregory, a young brain specialist, offers to effect a cure and takes the case on the condition that all restraint be removed from Jane, he making himself responsible for her actions.

Then Jane disappears and is next seen amongst the denizens of the underworld. She has fallen in love with "The Leopard," an all-round "bad man" and leader of a gang of thieves. Together "The Imp" and "The Leopard" have turned several "tricks" and are now planning the big "blow-off," which will enable them to secure enough money to give up crime and start life anew. Then come a series of exciting incidents, culminating in a climax that is as novel as it is unexpected.

JOHNNY RAY COMES TO THE GRAND NEXT MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY AS "FATHER."

Clever Comedian Will Star as "Father" in George McManus' Famous Cartoon Comedy, "Father's Close Shave." Johnny Ray, that funny fellow, who has created the funniest roles in film as Father in the George McManus cartoon comedy series, will star at the Grand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on the same bill with Elsie Janis in "The Imp," in his latest comic scream, "Father's Close Shave." All the principals in the McManus cartoon series will be seen in the cast and the children will more than delight in seeing this latest scream.

Many new and novel added features will feature the program in addition to the feature picture and the big comedy. Prizma Master Pictures, in nature's own colors, will be something new in photoplays for Londoners, and will be one of the features of the big picture bill. Pathe Topics of the Day will herald picture news from all corners of the globe.

Matinees will prevail every day at 2:15, and the evening will feature two shows, one at 7 and one at 9.

"TWIN BEDS" AT THE GRAND NEXT THURSDAY.
It is a merry comedy that alternates roars, screams and yells of laughter with galling-gun rapidity is what the patrons want, then those that will continue on Page Eleven.
