Live Stock Market
 Trading on the Union Stock Yards Exchange, which is pretty slow yesterday, the market, though steady, being decidedly listless, and at the close it was said that several loads of fair to medium butchery cattle were still unsold.
 The receipts were light, but they were ample for all the demand there was, the packing houses evidently having a good supply of high-priced beef on hand, causing the better grades to be somewhat neglected. Butcher cattle barely held steady with Wednesday's best prices, but the common to medium stuff, canners and cutters and that class of cattle, found a fairly good market, and the whole indicates, they sold at good prices.
 Stockers and feeders are not in very active demand, unless it is for the very best quality, and these would probably find steady sale, as a good many farmers are still looking for the better class.
Sheep and Lambs.
 There was a fairly heavy run of sheep and lambs, 1753 all told, and the market was noticeably weaker from 25c to 40c from Wednesday's prices. At the close it was said that several loads of fair to medium butchery cattle were still unsold.
 There was a light run of calves and the market was easier. Choice veal calves sold at 14c to 15c; medium calves, 11c to 12c; and heavy, fat calves at 7c to 10c.
Hogs.
 There was a moderately heavy run of hogs yesterday, some especially good, but they were not sold as fast as the market was firm. The prevailing price was 18c to 19c, fed and watered, and odd lots sold at 17c, fed and watered.
REPRESENTATIVE SALES.
Sparkhill & Armstrong.
 Sparkhill & Armstrong, on Wednesday, sold the following: 100 head of cattle and small stuff at the following prices: 100 head of cattle, common, eastern light stockers, $16.25 to $17.75. Hogs sold at 17c to 18c; sheep, 11c to 12c. The firm sold 20 milkers and springers at $110 to $120. They bought 70 milkers and springers at an average price of $120 to $130. The firm also shipped one load of Hare Valley of Saint Ste. Marie, among others.
