It was a hard-fought contest, Maitlands were the early aggressors and scored the only goal of the opening period. BASEBALL

Spring Overcoat
Special for Today

Too Many Fly-Chasers—Yanigans Blanked the Regulars Tuesday.

Columbus, Ga., March 22.—(Special).—The first release was recorded today. The Toronto camp today, when President McChaffery handed the blue ticket to Herb Hunter, and the much-travelled outfielder will leave for New Jersey tomorrow. With five fly chasers already here, there was no room for Hunter, despite his fine all-around ability.

The practices today were not so animated as those early in the week, probably for the reason that Blackburn was in evidence, but at Camp Benning, umpiring a game between the soldiers and the University of Cincinnati by special request. There is a scarcity of pitchers here able to work and McCarty, who is a forward Winters and Barnes at once. Four of the seven twirlers, namely, Snyder, Warfield, Reiser and Thompson, are all right, but the arms and fortune, Woodgate and Williams are the only ones available.

Porter showed fine form for the three innings today when he blanked the regulars on two hits. Williams was treated badly by Purcell, McAndrews and the Yanigans generally. Purcell showed himself a slogger by tripping almost out of the park, but O'Quinn time him with a mammoth drive to right. The teams and score are as follows:

Yanigans..... 3 2 0—5 9 2
Regulars..... 0 0 0—0 2 0

Yanigans—Purcell, 10; Altenberg, 11; McCarty, 12; Wagner, 13; Devine, 14; Foster, 15; Vanover, 16; Woodgate, 17; Fortune, 18.

Regulars—Mathews, 10; Davis, 11; O'Quinn, 12; Doyle, 13; Penney, 14; Anderson, 15; Riley, 16; Sanberg, 17; Williams, 18.

Umpire—Snyder.
