Montisambert, director-general of public health, Ottawa, arrived in the city Saturday on a trip of inspection.

Rev. Norman McQueen, of Somerville (Mass.), formerly located in Sydney (C. B.), occupied the pulpit of Knox church at both services yesterday.

Some excitement was caused by the ringing of No. 24 fire alarm box yesterday. Nos. 1, 2 and 8 stations were called and the teams taken out. It was found, however, upon investigation, that the only trouble was a fire located in a garage box in an alley off Charlotte street connecting with Bell's crenary.

The Mission church held its Sunday school picnic on Saturday at Rothsey. Owing to the fine weather more than 800 attended the picnic which, under the management of Rowland Frith, proved a great success. During the afternoon races and games were held, M. Robinson being in charge of these. Refreshments were served by St. Monica's Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Atherton Smith of this city, returned home on Saturday, after an extended trip through the United States and Canada. Mrs. Smith, while away, addressed many audiences in both the United States and Canada. In San Francisco Mr. Smith and his known and highly esteemed resident of the city, and the funeral was attended by a large number of her friends. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Normanell, whose death occurred on Friday, took place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of W. A. Rowley, 185 Brussels street, to the Cathedral, where services were conducted by Rev. Father Howland. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Pidgeon took place on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from her late residence, 15 Victoria street. Services were conducted by Rev. J. C. B. Appel, and interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Cecil R. Keirthead, son of Color Sergt. J. Vernon Keirthead, whose death took place at Clifton, on the Kennebecasis river on Thursday afternoon, July 5, under such sad circumstances, was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents, Lancaster avenue, and was largely attended. The cadet corps, of which the young lad was a member and many of his boy friends, were present, the Commercial Travelers Association being also represented. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes sent to the bereaved family, expressive of the general feeling of regret felt by the community, among them being wreaths from the Sunday school classes of Charlotte street Baptist church and a lovely star of roses from the staff of T. H. Estabrook & Co., Ltd. Rev. Donald J. McPherson, of Central Baptist church, conducted the services at the house and grave. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

CATHOLIC CLERGY RETREAT. The annual retreat of the priests of the St. John diocese will be held this week at St. Joseph's College, Memramook, beginning this evening and continuing until the last of the week. Most of the city clergy will leave for Memramook this morning and will return to the city Saturday afternoon. In the absence of the local clergy the services at the several city churches will be cancelled.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF AMERICAN EXPORTS IN OPERATION JULY 15. Washington, July 8.—Government control of American exports, authorized in the provision of the espionage act, was directed to be put into operation July 15 by President Wilson tonight with the issuance of a proclamation requiring the licensing of shipments to all countries of the most important export commodities.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson DeVeber, widow of J. S. Boies DeVeber, took place on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from St. Paul's church. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Kulring and Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot, and interment was made in Fernhill cemetery. Mrs. DeVeber was a well-
