

ttman, Mr. Ro-
Mr. Wardrope,
an, Mr. Elder,

g of Synod be
nesday of June.
e Moderator, at Kingston are in-Meeting and the ccasion, as they

and Overtures
. M.; that the Eleven o'clock;
ed by the Com-
bject of confer-
, that the Over-
ations to petition
es, deferred by
should be taken

o'clock, A.M. al exercises, and

ad.

l Overtures was

lton, on Baptism,
onference.

of the Overture

Mr. Wm. Gregg,
D. Ferrier, and Finance, to ex-
ae various funds

The Treasurers of the various Funds were required to hand in to the Committee their respective books and accounts without delay.

The Synod was closed with the blessing.

SESSION VI.

TORONTO,

Friday, 7th June, 1850, Two o'clock, P.M.

The Synod met, and was constituted with prayer.

The Synod resumed the consideration of the Overture on Baptism,—

When, after deliberation, the Synod appointed Dr. Willis, Mr. Stark, Mr. Bayne, Mr. McKenzie, Ministers; Mr. Donald McLellan, Mr. Burgess, Mr. Clark, Elders; a Committee to draft a Minute on the subject of Baptism, embodying the views agreed on in the Conference, for the adoption of the Synod, and such as may be read by Ministers to their Congregations. Mr. Stark convener.

The Committee to report on Tuesday.

The Synod took up the consideration of a memorial in behalf of the widow of the late lamented Joseph Harris, minister of the church at Niagara, from a Committee in that town, for making provision for the destitute family of Mr. Harris.

Mr. Blain, Elder, from Niagara, was heard in support of the memorial, and gave an interesting account of the esteem and affection with which the memory of Mr. Harris was cherished in the congregation over which he had affectionately and faithfully laboured, and of the exertions that were being made for raising a fund for the support of the widow and children of the deceased.

Mr. Robb, who had attended Mr. Harris on his death-bed, gave some interesting accounts of the peace and hope with which Mr. Harris closed his earthly career, when in attendance on a meeting of Presbytery at Hamilton.

Other members addressed the Court to the same tenor, when it was Resolved—That Dr. Willis and Dr. Burns be appointed to draft a Resolution, expressive of the solemn feelings of the Synod, on the death of Mr. Harris and of their sympathy with the bereaved family—calling on the ministers and members