

The Eurhetorian Society.

This is a voluntary Literary Society, which embraces most, if not all, the members of the College, and also some of the Senior students of the Academy. It has a room, well furnished and properly fitted up, in which meetings are held every week for various literary exercises.

Parents and guardians are earnestly advised that students here have need of very little spending money; and that any supply of cash beyond their actual necessities, is far more likely to be injurious than beneficial to them.
