

Its a Treat

To chew King George Navy Plug.

Made from pure, rich tobacco, every ounce of which is carefully selected, then blended according to our process.

King George's NAVY PLUG

Has a delicious, non-irritating sweet taste—and it is universally recognized that sweetened tobacco is much more healthful than the old fashion "strong", unsweetened plug.

It leaves a long, lingering flavor and guards the teeth from the ravages of "acid mouth", the cause of nearly all tooth decay.

"JIM THE PENMAN"

An International Triumph For Years. FEATURING THE EMINENT STAR JOHN MASON. THE PARAMOUNT PICTURE PEOPLE make another valuable addition to their stellar forces by introducing the celebrated dramatic star John Mason to the screen in a thrilling white-epitaph of Sir Charles L. Young's world-renowned drama "Jim the Penman." The heart-grIPPING story of the great forger who signs for love and whose life is one of remorse and retribution. Mr. Mason portrays with great force and dramatic discretion the title-character, the man whose clever pen works so much harm to even his most dearly loved. It is a powerful play, leaped up with tremendous climax, gripping the interest from the start.

WELCOME HOME TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

After a strenuous career at the front, Corporal George F. Smith arrived in St. John via Halifax on Sunday afternoon. He was met at the station by C. B. Lockhart, M.P.E., H. S. Ritchie, and John Thornton, of the citizens' reception committee, and a large number of other citizens joined in a hearty reception. He was taken by Mr. Lockhart in his car to the home of his brother, Basil Smith, 40 Carmarthen street. Corporal Smith left home six years ago to join the Northwest Mounted Police, and this is the first time he has been home since. He crossed to France with the 1st division and saw much fighting before being wounded. Among other engagements he was at Givensy when Lieut. Campbell won the Victoria Cross for holding a trench against tremendous odds, using a soldier's back as the tripod for a machine gun. He has been given several months leave to recuperate.
