BROTHER VERY ILL.

Gordon C. Allan, formerly of Saint John and now of Halifax, has received a recent wire from Philadelphia advising him that his brother, Enoch O. Allan, was seriously ill and with little hope of recovery.

IN MAINE PASTORATE.

Rev. Walter Parker Lyons, formerly of Marysville, has become pastor of the North Baptist church, of North Scituate, Me., of which he has been acting pastor for the last two years. He was ordained recently by the ministers of the Hancock County Baptist Association.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY.

Friends gave a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Tippetts, Manawagonish Road on Tuesday evening to congratulate and present beautiful gifts to Mrs. Tippetts in honor of her birthday. A tempting repast was enjoyed and the evening was spent in bridge and music. Mrs. Frank Ashe and Mrs. S. B. Donovan assisted in serving the supper.

MANY ENJOYED CARDS.

An unusually large number attended St. Rose's weekly card party last evening. The prize winners were: Ladies, first, Miss Nellie McKinnon; second, Mrs. G. McKinnon; consolation, Miss Mary Ryan; gentlemen, first, Howard Bruce; second, James Wallace; consolation, William McManus. At the close the ladies of St. Rose's served refreshments.

PRIZE WINNERS AT FAIR.

The largest attendance since the fair was opened was recorded last night at the Around the World Fair of the City Cornet Band which is running every night in St. Malachi's Hall, corner Sydney and Lincolnton streets. Prize winners, last evening, were—Bean bag, gentlemen, F. McAuley, prize, electric toaster; ladies, Miss Edna McLellan, prize, pair of slippers. Tonight the Carleton Cornet Band will play at the fair.

NORTH END W. C. T. U.

The North End branch of the W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon in Union Hall and completed two quilts they were making for the Protestant Orphan Home. The sum of $40 was voted to furnish a room in the Inter-Provincial Home for Women, at Coverdale, near Moncton, the money to be handed to Rev. H. A. Goodwin. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held in the latter part of November. Devotional exercises were led by the evangelist superintendent. A letter was read from Narasapur, India, from one of the native Christians. Three hundred pages of reading matter had been forwarded to him for Christmas, also money.

ENTERTAINED W. A.

Mrs. Gertrude de Geer of Fairville, entertained the W. A. of the Church of the Good Shepherd last evening. The occasion was also the birthday anniversary of one of the members, Mrs. Herbert Blagden, and the tea table was centered with a birthday cake, decorated with pink roses and candles. Rev. F. J. Le Roy assisted in the evening's entertainment. Those present were Mrs. Amy Bender, Mrs. F. J. Le Roy, Mrs. H. McGuire, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, Mrs. W. Bayard, Mrs. Arthur Appleby, Mrs. Thomas Pile, Mrs. A. O. Patrinquin, Mrs. J. Canavan, Mrs. T. Riley, Mrs. Charles Ellis, Mrs. J. Graham, Mrs. W. H. Blagden, Mrs. J. White, Mrs. J. Cairns and Mrs. F. Andrews.

CONGREGATIONAL SOCIAL.

The annual congregational social of St. Jude's Church took place in the church hall last evening, and was largely attended. A musical program, arranged by Miss Lorna Cochrane, organist of the church, added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Those who contributed to the program were Mrs. Cooke, Miss Birch, Miss M. Ellis, Mrs. Lambert, Mrs. S. Weston and Miss Betts. Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, rector of the church, addressed the congregation and was followed by Rev. John Unsworth, rector of St. George's church, and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, who also addressed the gathering. Two comic moving picture films were shown by J. Wilcox, and completed the program. Delicious refreshments were served.

Bad Language Case In Police Court

T. Arthur Merritt, charged with using abusive and insulting language in the Police Court this morning, to Charles Hilland, pleaded not guilty. The evidence of two witnesses was heard and the case was postponed until Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Scott E. Morrill appeared for the defendant.

Pasteurized Milk Likely Discussed

The question of pasteurized milk, which was often heard of in Saint John city and county in the late provincial election, may be again a matter of controversy when brought up at a conference to be held in the near future with the new Minister of Health, Dr. H. I. Taylor of St. George. It is understood Hon. Mr. Taylor will meet the Saint John Sub-District Board of Health soon in general introduction and review of work accomplished and in hand. At this meeting it was said today pasteurized milk was almost certain to be discussed.
