

SAYS CHINESE
CANNOT BE HELD

Lawyer Declares Act First
Invoked Against Them
Has Been Repealed.

An interesting point of law was raised in the police court this morning in the case against two Chinese, Charlie Lam and Woe Get, arrested in April, 1923, on a charge of having open in their possession and who were allowed on a deposit of $25 each and failed to appear at an adjourned session of the court, when their deposits were held. As the representative of the narcotic department of the government did not wish the case dropped a bench warrant was issued at the time and was served only last Wednesday night.

This morning Wm. M. Ryan and Albert W. Nelson appeared for the defendants. The former first asked Magistrate Henderson what the matter stood and then asked that the deposits be returned to them. This was granted. He then asked that the defendants be dismissed on the ground that a narcotic and opium drug act was passed in June, 1923, repealing the old act. He said that the defendants had been arrested in April and since the new act repealed all other acts he contended that there was no charge under which the magistrate could proceed. He said that unless the act made some reference to the old act, the latter had to be considered as if it never existed. He quoted authorities and cited cases to back his contention. A member of the narcotic department maintained that the case was still under trial as it had been started in April, 1923. Magistrate Henderson said he would have advised hesitation had he been consulted prior to the defendants being arrested. He said that he could not under a dead law and would not like to take the responsibility when it was clearly shown that the law then in force had since been repealed and a person could not be convicted under it. He said that the new law should have provided for such contingencies. The new law, he said, apply to this particular case. He felt he had no jurisdiction. The prosecution asked that the matter be not disposed of as the law appearing on behalf of the defendants were willing to appear again and argue the case it was decided to set the hearing down for next Friday at 10:30 o'clock. The Chinese were then allowed their freedom with an understanding that they appear on Friday.

HYDRO NOTES.

It was said at the office of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission this morning that the first reading of the meters in the Norton district had been completed and the customers had expressed satisfaction with the service furnished. There had been an interruption of 45 minutes since the current was turned on and that was due to trouble at Moncton. It was said that it was the intention of the Commission to send out a man to assist in installing several farm motors in this district. A total of 2,629 meters installed, of which 464 were in the west side, was reported at the office of the Civic Power Commission this morning. It was said that it was the intention to start placing poles on Lancaster avenue and City Line early next week.

Judge Tytle found for Middlemiss and Yardley and the second divisional court dismissed Mrs. Kelly's appeal. The appellate judges sympathized with her but she had signed the contract.

TRACE LIFE OF SLAIN ACTRESS

Police Question Prominent New Yorker—Believe Robbery Motive.

New York, Feb. 9.—Miss Louise Lawson, former motion picture actress, was found strangled to death in her fashionable studio apartment in 77th street facing Central Park yesterday. Police have since divided their time in a search for two men who entered her rooms early yesterday morning, and in questioning those believed to have known details of the girl's life and her friends along Broadway. The theory has been advanced by the police that the murderers were bootleggers who had visited the apartment before and had been attracted by jewels Miss Lawson wore and other valuable jewels were gone. All jewel boxes were open and the entire apartment was in disorder, indicating that the girl had fought hard to save her life and her valuables. In the investigation of Miss Lawson's life, police learned that she was the daughter of a prominent merchant of Walnut Springs, Texas; that she had played small parts in motion pictures, but for two years or more had been unemployed living in her luxurious apartment which was still filled with the fragrance of fresh cut flowers when her body was found.

WAS IN GAY DUKE PARTY

They learned she had been a member of the gay party that ended in the death of Angier B. Duke, wealthy tobacco manufacturer, at Greenwich, Conn., last September. Pictures of an army lieutenant and a middle-aged man were on her dressing table. The middle-aged man, it was learned, was Gerhard M. Dahl, chairman of the Hayden Stone & Company, vice-president of the Chase National Bank, and a member of the brokerage firm of Hayden Stone & Company. On the back of the photograph was inscribed: "Gerry Doll."

WAS IN GAY DUKE PARTY

Mr. Dahl was communicated with by telephone and he arranged a conference with the police. What happened there was told by Fred Landis, a New York lawyer, who said she had been a friend of Dahl since they were classmates at the University of Wisconsin. "Gerry" phoned me that he understood the police wanted to question him. I met him and Barron Collier, special deputy police commissioner, at the apartment of Max Herzberg. Gerry said he had nothing to hide and wanted to get a clean slate. He knew Miss Lawson and her parents and was interested in her education.

WAS IN GAY DUKE PARTY

Dahl, gray haired and about fifty years of age, answered the description furnished by Thomas Kana, elevator operator at the apartment house of the one person who frequently visited Miss Lawson's apartment.

WAS IN GAY DUKE PARTY

There were two numbers by Mrs. Brunstrom, "Fiddle and I" and "If I Were a Butterfly." Mrs. J. Shony, "The Better Land" and a pretty Irish lullaby, "Hushen." Mrs. Bisset sang with expression, "Last Night the Nightingale," "Woke Me" and "Miss Withers," deKoven's "Winter Lullaby" and "Mary Girl." Mrs. Bisset later gave a pretty song, "Three Over One." Miss Marguerite Barrett gave the daily selection, "Dream O' Day," and the National Anthem closed a delightful evening.

WAS IN GAY DUKE PARTY

Finally a Salvation Army officer stumbled across divorce records in Chicago. He notified Mrs. Raynor and then interviews with witnesses called in the case led her to Chicago, where she was reunited with her mother, who had since married and was living under the name Stein.

MOTHER!

"California Fig Syrup" Dependable Laxative for Sick Baby or Child

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love its pleasant taste.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

Her only information was that she was living in Chicago, and this meagre information failed to aid the police help. False tips from various sources caused her to go to Canada and then to Brazil. Search is rewarded.
