EXHIBITION IS ASKED OF IL FRANCESCA'S 'VIRGIN'

Waiting Restored to the Italian Consul General—Will be Preserved With Copy of Times.

(N. Y. Times)

The old master, "Virgin and Child," can be seen at the Italian painter's studio, which was found wrapped in a copy of The New York Times in a room on the east side several weeks ago by Captain Piero Tozzi, now staying in the Hotel Vanderbilt, was delivered yesterday to Italian Consul General Bernardi for return to the Museum of Bologna, from which it was stolen. The Consul General had been advised by the Italian Embassy that Count Formica, Italian Minister for Foreign Affairs, had called instructions for its restoration to the National Museum in Bologna, where Captain Tozzi said that it would be hung with the copy of The Times to lend further interest to its history.

The Consul General will send the painting under guard to Washington. Captain Tozzi expressed relief because no longer was responsible for the time, which agents of the Italian government have been seeking ever since it disappeared from its original place. It finally was placed on a market in New York and sold for a high price. The picture may be entrusted to no one except the Ambassador, who plans to carry it back when he returns in June or July to Italy. So much interest has been aroused by the discovery of "Virgin and Child," that an effort is being made to have it exhibited in New York.

Mrs. John A. Drake, President of the Red Cross, yesterday visited the Consul General's office to obtain permission from the Ambassador to exhibit the painting at an Italian dinner party that the relief organization to hold in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Henderson in Roslyn on June 2.

ANDRU TRIAL IS EXPECTED IN JULY

Paris, May 27.—It now seems fairly certain that Henri Desir Landru, who, on the last 30 months, has been awaiting trial on charges of murder growing out of the disappearance, without trace, of eleven women to whom he had promised marriage, will come before the Versailles assizes in July. Landru has become a great favorite with the warden owing to his unflinching humor.

PRIEST SHOTS INTRUDER.

Detroit Pastor Fires on Four Men Breaking into Rectory.

Detroit, May 27.—Andrew Kulick was shot through the lung by the Rev. John Kovalsky, pastor of St. Cyril's Catholic church, when with three other men he is alleged to have tried to break into the rectory in Hamtramck, a suburb. Father Kovalsky was released following a statement to the prosecuting attorney. He said his objection to a certain dance hall in the vicinity of his parish had led to threats against his life.

He fired at the intruders, the pastor said, only after they had thrown flower-pots through the rectory windows and shouted that they intended to kill him. At the hospital it was said Kulick might die.

WANTS EVERY BOY AND GIRL
TO LIVE A YEAR ON A FARM

Boston, May 27.—Every American boy and girl should spend a year on the farm as part of their education, Professor Dallas Lore Sharp of Boston University said in an address at a joint meeting of Unitarian and Congregational ministers. Children today are too little of nature and too much of the movies, stores and clubs, he said, pointing to Lincoln as an example of what "natural" education would do for a man.

The Viny Cafe in Mill street was recently broken into and about $80 taken.

4,300,000 IDLE IN EUROPE

This Total, Exclusive of Russia and Balkans is Hoover Estimate.

Washington, May 27.—Approximately 4,300,000 workers are idle in Europe, exclusive of Russia and the Balkan States, Secretary Hoover said on the basis of estimates cabled to the Department of Commerce from its agents abroad. This represents an increase in unemployment of about one-third compared with six months ago, Mr. Hoover added, but also compared with an unemployment of from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 just after the armistice was signed.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday, a case in which Messrs. Kane and Farren were charged with supplying liquor unlawfully, was taken up and the two accused were acquitted. William Gantner, to whom it was alleged the liquor was sold, was fined $100 for having it in his possession. Sergeant McEwen, Emmett Burke, William Gantner, Inspector Barrett, George T. Kane and Matthew Morris gave evidence. J. A. Barry appeared for Kane and Farren, and William M. Ryan conducted the prosecution.

Edward Furlong, alias Ritchie, charged with stealing various articles of clothing, was brought in again yesterday afternoon. Max Lampert, who conducts a second-hand store, was the only witness examined. He said that the accused had brought a leather coat and an officer's coat, like those produced in court, to his store and he had bought them from him. He produced the book showing the signature as A. G. Furlong, 115 Queen street. The magistrate sent the accused up for trial.

GOOD RESULTS.

The Red Cross membership drive was carried out yesterday by a house to house canvass under the direction of Mrs. F. S. White, president of the local Red Cross, with Miss Maud Retulish as convener of the wards. Mrs. White said she felt confident that results would be excellent both in membership and in the amount of money received.

RUMORS OF PROVINCIAL ELECTION IN ALBERTA

Edmonton, May 27.—A provincial election in the near future is looming up as a possibility, according to the Edmonton Journal. "Rumors that the government will make an early appeal to the country," it says, "are now persistent, and the likelihood of another contest is being somewhat freely discussed in political circles. Late June is mentioned as a possible date, while another rumor has it that it will be held in the autumn, with perhaps a referendum on the prohibition question in the meantime."

HEEDED NOT WOMAN'S PLEA; KILLED HER

Murderer was Hanged This Morning in Prison in Wethersfield, Conn.

Wethersfield, Conn., May 27.—John Kucenasaukas of Bridgewater paid the penalty for the murder of Mrs. Anna Chernock of Milford, in the state prison early today. He was hanged a little after midnight.

The murder of Mrs. Anna Chernock at her home in Milford, on Feb. 1, was described later by Coroner Mix, as the most brutal crime in the history of New Haven state.

Mrs. Chernock, 36 years of age, and the mother of six children, was beaten with an iron shoe last and a cobble stone, while she pleaded for her life. Three of her children were in the house at the time.

Kucenasaukas was arrested in his bedroom house in Bridgewater the following morning. Most of $110 stolen by the murderer was found in his room. He baffled the police that he had killed the woman.

SUIT OF HEIRS OF FAMOUS HYMN WRITER SETTLED

Man Who Wrote "In the Sweet Bye-and-Bye"—Fifteen Years in Court.

Boston, May 27.—Heirs of Jos. P. Webster, whose hymn "In the Sweet Bye-and-Bye" has been a favorite for half a century, yesterday settled a suit against the Oliver Ditson Co., music publishers of this city, which had been before the federal court here for fifteen years.

The action was brought by Joan H. Webster, widow of the author, to obtain an accounting from the local publishers, who had taken over the rights of a Chicago house with which Webster had a contract. The settlement, attorneys said, involved a payment of $56,000.

Mrs. Webster and many of the twenty attorneys who at one time or another were connected with the case have died since the suit was instituted in 1906. Louis Webster of Elkhorn, Wis., one of the heirs, was in court when the settlement was recorded.

Friends of Captain James Hayes, Dufferin Row, West St. John, will congratulate him today on his ninety-first birthday. Captain Hayes was born at St. Andrews in 1830. He has lived during the reign of four British monarchs. He followed the sea for thirty-seven years, and commanded the ship Honolulu when he was seventy years old.

MORNING NEWS
OVER THE WIRES

Although no official information has been received in Ottawa, it is reported in London that the Duke of Northumberland may become the next governor-general of Canada.

The Unionists are leading in the Northern Ireland elections and may get forty of the fifty-two seats. Sir James Craig, Eamonn De Valera, Joseph Devlin and Professor John McNeill have all been elected and there was a tremendous demonstration in the streets of Belfast last evening by Orange forces, Sinn Féiners and Nationalists.

The Nationalists and Sinn Féiners are celebrating because, although they have not been elected, they have registered their protest against the partition of Ireland and they believe their protest will have its effect on the minds of the peoples of the world.

MRS. LLOYD GEORGE,
POLITICAL SPEAKER

London, May 27.—(Associated Press, By Mail).—Mrs. David Lloyd George, wife of the British premier, prides herself on the personal management of her home at No. 10 Downing street, but she can also make a political speech with telling effect.

Few by-elections of recent date have failed to lure her, and her aggressive campaign activities have furnished interesting copy for the newspapers of all shades.

Not only has she campaigned in Wales, the heartland of the Lloyd Georges, but she has invaded opposition territory uninvited by the hostile gestures of strong labor sections.

Perhaps her greatest personal triumph was her tour of the Bedford district where a hard fight was waged between Coalition-Liberal and Labor candidates. She was acclaimed everywhere. The Labor party sent cars and speakers in her wake, but they had a chilly reception.

At Elbow, the birthplace of John Bunyan, Mrs. Lloyd George received a gift of a copy of "Pilgrim's Progress." School children at Willington gave her a huge lock, emblematic of Wales. The tour was completed by a visit at Wilton to a father 100 years old and his son, aged 81, both staunch Liberals and now supporters of the coalition.

LOCAL INTEREST IN THE GARFIELD ESCAPE

Some local interest attaches to the escape of Norman Garfield, a condemned murderer, who got away from the county jail at Woodstock, Ont., on Wednesday evening, owing to the fact that Rev. Wilfred Gault, former pastor of a St. John church, had been acting as spiritual adviser to the condemned man and was the last man to see him while he was escaping. In a statement issued with the object of showing why he did not make a greater effort to prevent the escape, the minister said that he was not Garfield's guard and it was not his place to follow him. Garfield struck him as he passed him in the corridor, and as soon as he was able he informed the guard. In his opinion Garfield was not guilty of murder, but only of manslaughter, and he had done all in his power to obtain a reprieve for him.

WORK FOR THE BIRDS.

"The annual loss in Canada to field, orchard and garden crops, due to destructive insects, is, on a conservative estimate, upwards of $200,000,000. To this huge devastation must be added the enormous annual destruction caused by forest insects, stored produce insects, etc. It is certain that these losses would be much greater if it were not for our insectivorous birds."—Arthur Gibson, Dominion Entomologist, in Agricultural Gazette.

IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, May 27.—(Canadian Press).—Yesterday in the House of Commons the minister of justice asked unanimous consent to introduce a bill to validate the proclamation for the provincial liquor referendum. This was refused. Hon. Jacques Bureau objecting. First reading was given to senate bill amending the Northwest Territories Act and the Dominion Lands Act.

Sir Henry Drayton announced that he would proceed with the non-contentious clauses of the bill concerning the income tax act. He also said that he would bring down revised tariff resolutions as a result of the passage of the Young bill in the United States.

A bill amending the Oleo Act was given third reading. One to amend the Criminal Code was read a third time. Reports of the pension committee and of the civic service committee were tabled.

Third reading was given to bill amending the immigration act and to the bills based on the budget resolutions. Also a bill repealing the conservation act.

In the senate a bill creating a national research institute was further postponed. Third reading was given bills amending the opium and narcotic drug acts, statistics act, Canada evidence act, and the juvenile delinquent act.

Supplementary estimates amounting to $14,000,000 applicable to this fiscal year which closed on March 31 last, were tabled by the minister of finance. The estimates cover expenses already incurred. Among the chief items are: For the civil service commission, $294,000; seed grain, $1,000,000; emergency relief, $500,000; unemployment relief in connection with soldiers' civil re-establishment, $1,100,000; administration of business profits act and income tax act, $600,000; deficit on Canadian Government Railways, $2,000,000.

The Business End of a Corn is the Root

Cutting the top of a corn off with a razor or burning it off with caustic lotions, plasters, etc., doesn't do any good. It may do great harm by causing infection or even blood poisoning.

Also it hurts and the root just sprouts right up again, so your corn soon has a brand new top on it bigger than ever. The top is only dead skin anyway. The business end of a corn is the little pointed part or core that extends down into the toe. That is what hurts when it presses on sensitive nerves, and it is the part you have to get out. A good handful of Rexall's Bath Salts dissolved in a gallon or so of hot water will soften corns and callouses, like water softens soap. Just soak them in this for a while, then take hold of the corn with your fingers, and cut it with a corn knife and all. The retired Rexall's Bath Salts costs very little, and any chemist will have it. A quarter-pound is sufficient to rid the whole family of all foot troubles.
