FELT AND LEATHER SLIPPERS

We're showing some choice new Slippers in several styles!

Every woman that knows of their comfort will want a pair as soon as she sees them!

Nothing like them for house wear comfort!

Prices 45c, 65c, 75c, 95c to $1.65.

OUR BOYS' BOOTS AT $1.48

The Canadian government carries a letter 6,000 miles for 2 cents. It couldn't do this if it had not millions of other letters to carry as well.

In the same way we could not afford to sell such good shoes at $1.48, if we didn't sell thousands of pairs in a year. The profit on a single pair is small, but figured on a week's shoe selling it is enough for us. Try a pair of them for the boy. There isn't a better boot in Canada at $1.48.

ARTISTIC P. C. GRIMME IS ENJOYED AT STONE CHURCH CONCERT

The large audience which filled the school house of St. John's (Stone) church last evening had the pleasure of listening to one of the finest concertists to which D. Arnold Fox has yet treated the music lovers of the city. The programme was well chosen and pleasantly varied, every number was received with keen and intelligent appreciation.

Osborne Sheppard, whose reputation as an operatic singer is well known, was heard in a generous selection of classical and modern songs, which gave full opportunity for the display of his magnificent bass voice. He was at his best in the operatic selection (Bramm) and the cavatina

Viravivio and his songs in English were also especially well received. Mrs. Douthwaite's beautiful mezzo contralto was greatly enjoyed, her clear full voice being heard to great advantage, the most popular of her selections being "When All Was Young," from Faust, and "My Ain Folk." Mr. Fox and Mrs. J. M. Barnes were heard in two charming piano duets which were much applauded. Mrs. Robertson sang "For All Eternity," and "Buy My Lavender," both selections being well suited to her sweet soprano. C. A. Munn, tenor, and J. G. Garrett, bass, were both forced to respond to encore. The programme was completed with a reading from Drummond's "Habitant" by Harold G. Ellis. The accompaniments for Mrs. Douthwaite's songs were played by Mr. Sheppard and for the others by Mr. Fox. The proceeds were in aid of the organ fund.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding--no talent, no self-denial, no brains, no character are required to set up in the operating business.

THANK YOU

—and you, and you— for the many kind thoughts expressed at our opening yesterday.

It's good to know that our efforts to give St. John a fine modern store have been appreciated—it urges us on to better things.

Just about eight months ago preparations were commenced to build this new and greater Wiesel's store—to give St. John a store thoroughly modern in every way—a better store than any other round hereabouts.

The congratulations and showers of praise bestowed upon us yesterday lead us to believe that we have succeeded to a very great extent. But our one ambition shall be to try and do better tomorrow than what we have done today.

THANK YOU.

SELECTING YOUR SHOES MR. MAN!

You'll find it the easiest thing to secure a "just right" pair of shoes, sir, if you come here for them.

We've gathered together the cream of the country's men's shoe productions. Not the ideas of one factory, but of several of the best factories.

We know that one factory's shoes can not fit every man's feet, suit their fancies, or appeal to their pocketbooks. We offer good shoes of several lines.

Bright or dull leathers, the winter tans, high toes, medium toes, or the new receding toes with low flat heels.

$1.98, $2.68, $2.98, $3.48 to $4.85.

BETTER VALUES IN FURNISHINGS FOR MEN

We are offering values in Gent's Furnishings that any store might be proud of. Come and judge them yourself! If you're interested! You will agree that in inviting you we have not wasted your time. It means money saved to see these lines.

COAT SWEATERS, with or without collars, 68c, 98c, $1.35, $1.75 to $4.45.

UNDERWEAR, Stanfield's and other makes, medium and heavy ribbed wool, at 48c, 68c, 98c to $1.40.

SILK TIES, beautiful patterns, 19c, 25c, 35c to 50c.

GLOVES, Mocha and Kid, lined or unlined, 75c, 85c, 98c to $1.85.

Little Beauty Chats

By ELIZABETH BEACON

The Vegetable That Beautifies

THE woman who wishes to add to her good looks should place the lettuce in her diet. One of the daintiest creams of which I know, has lettuce juice as its principal ingredient.

Take lettuce for instance. It has many beauty virtues, and it is my intention to inform you fully in regard to them. Doubtless you will not be unwilling to lend an attentive ear, as I have yet to find the woman who turns indifferently away when a new beautifier is the subject of discussion. And this is just as it should be, as it is an abnormal woman who refuses to be interested in a common-sense treatment that has as its goal the improvement of her appearance.

To resume. Here is one reason why you must hereafter regard lettuce with a friendly eye. It quickens the nerves! If you chance to be the unhappy mortal who lies the long night through tossing restlessly from one side of the bed to the other, to arise in the morning with dull eyes and a pallid skin, you will straightway acquire the lettuce habit, thereby showing wisdom of no mean order.

Take this odd sedative for lunch and then again as a tidbit just before you retire for the night. There is nothing more appetizing to my mind, than crisp lettuce leaves, sprinkled slightly with oil. What about vinegar as a dressing? Well, if you are wise in your day and generation, and wish to keep your skin white as newly fallen snow, you will refrain from flooding the tempting green leaves with vinegar. Vinegar, it may be as well for you to know, is credited with dulling the lustre of the eyes and tinting the complexion with saffron. Fight shy of it.

Perhaps the seeker after beauty is curious to know what else the lettuce can do for those who are minus their full share of good looks. Listen and I will tell you another interesting fact. Lettuce cleanses the blood, thus preventing the appearance of ugly pimples. If you are troubled with slight skin eruptions, make a friend of this vegetable, as it will prove "a friend in need."

Daily Hints For the Cook

FAVORITE ONE-EGG CAKE. One quarter of a cup of butter, and half cup of sugar creamed together, then add the yolk of one egg. Beat up very light, then add half cup of lukewarm milk. Stir in a cup of flour which has been sifted several times with a teaspoon of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Beat the white of the egg to a stiff froth and stir well in. This also is baked in three layers and put together with filling.

CURRY OF LOBSTER. Between two and three pounds of lobster meat, one real small onion, three tablespoonsful of butter, two of flour, a scant teaspoon of curry powder, a spoonful of cayenne, a little salt, a scant pint of water or stock. Let butter get hot, then add onion cut very fine and fry brown. When the onion is cooked add the flour and curry powder and stir all together for two minutes. Add stock, cook for two more minutes and strain. Add meat of lobster cut into disks and simmer five minutes. Serve with border of boiled rice around the dish.

MUFFINS. Mix one and a half cups of flour, half cup of cornmeal, one teaspoon of sugar, half of salt and a heaping one of baking powder. Mix well and then rub in a tablespoonful of butter, or other shortening would do. Rub this well in with fingers. Then add a cup of milk, two well-beaten eggs and a pinch of cinnamon if liked. Have a well-greased pan and on it put muffin rings, also well greased. Fill half full with the batter, and as soon as it rises to the top of the rings put a cake turner under muffin, ring and all, and turn them over and bake on the other side. Serve hot. Break open and butter while hot.

Boys and Firearms

(Amherst News). Only a few weeks ago an Amherst boy lost his life at Black Point by being accidentally shot by one of his companions. On Saturday last, another young lad came to a sudden end through the same cause, the particulars of which are related on another page.

During the last three or four years we have had at least a half a dozen deaths in Cumberland through the indiscriminate handling of firearms by untrained boys and it strikes us that it is time for our authorities to pass stringent legislation to prevent lads, not familiar with firearms, from having them in their possession.
