

staff, you honor the Captain of our salvation, and by a reflex action, bring into play that requisite benevolence in supporting your own home ministry in its numerous departments of usefulness and soul-saving enterprizes.

You will rejoice with us that the pecuniary aid transmitted, in connexion with our own missionary contributions (of which no portion is retained in stations), God has blessed, and we report, this year, a respectable increase of members.

Our Conference—held in Hamilton, Western Canada—was truly an assembly of special interest, both as regards the business order, and the blessed devotional exercises.

We are glad also to intimate that a stronger denominational patriotism, and a deeper tone of spiritual and converting power, grows amongst us.

Many of our “special protracted efforts” have been greatly blessed, so that we are sanguine in our hopes for the future.

Allow us, then, to solicit your earnest prayers and co-operation, that God may enable us to carry to the boundaries of this great land Primitive Methodism; or, a “present, full and free salvation” through the blood of the world’s Redeemer!

And now, fathers and beloved brethren, may the “God of peace, that brought again from the
