POLICE REPORTS

The police have a variety of reports for Saturday and Sunday. They report finding a string of prayer beads at Seaside Park, and a pair of glasses on Union street. These await the owners at the north end police station. Four cows were found wandering about Rockland Road early Sunday morning, and not being able to give a satisfactory account of themselves, the north end police locked them up in McCarthy's Simond street stables. The chief gave orders to liberate the cows later on in the day. James Hannah owned two, while Richard Ryder and Wm. McCain owned the others.

becoming too frequent a visitor. Mary Ann pleaded to be allowed to go, and take the pledge. She was sentenced to two months in the Home of the Good Shephard, and told if she really wished to take the pledge she could do so there.

Saturday night about 10.30 o'clock, Detective Marshall, of the night force, caught Albert Goldsworthy, aged 16, years, and Lambert Chandler, aged 15 years, stealing fruit from the front of F. E. Williams' store on Charlotte St. Both boys pleaded guilty this morning, and were remanded for sentence. The magistrate said he would make some inquiries regarding them. They were liable to four years in prison. Young Chandler's father was in court and asked the magistrate to be lement with his boy. This is not the first time in court for Goldsworthy, but his mother was there today and said he was her only son and was a good boy.

The magistrate said that all mothers claimed that their boys were good, no matter what trouble they got into.

John Davis, who is being given a preliminary hearing on the charge of perjury, was taken into court and remanded until this afternoon, when Joseph McDermott will give evidence for
