HARVARD DEFEATED YALE TEAMS RECORDS FOR YEARS

New Haven, Nov. 25.—Harvard won and it took every atom of power and the soccer game with Yale today by drive for Yale to carry the ball over.

For the first two periods it was a peculiar feature of the play that the team defending the south goal was always on the defense, every exchange of punts losing it many yards. During its period of attack Harvard, however, showed far better team work than when Yale took up the rushing.

Yale, however, appeared to have greater individual strength. Leggett and Jacques all smashing through the Harvard line for good gains when the opportunity arose. Harvard put up an excellent defense under the shadow of her goal posts.

ARMY DEFEATS NAVY.

New York, Nov. 25.—Amidst a riot of colors, furnished by flashing gold lace and streamers of army gray and the navy blue, the real "official" football game of the season was staged here this afternoon when the army defeated the navy by 15 to 7.

OPPOSITION TO PARDON FOR DUDLEY

Many Maine People Think
Man Who Used Deat.
of Haulton School Girl
Should Not be Liberated.

The people of Aroostook county are interested in the movement proposed to obtain the pardon of Dr. Lionel E. Dudley, now serving a sentence for manslaughter at the state prison at Thomaston. To a Bangor Commercial representative County Attorney Archibald, upon being asked if he had received official notice in regard to application for pardon for Dr. Dudley, stated that he had. Upon being asked if he intended to oppose the granting of the pardon he stated most emphatically that he did intend to oppose it. Continuing, County Attorney Archibald said: "Dr. Dudley knew before he pleaded guilty to manslaughter what his sentence was to be and had he not retracted his former plea his sentence today would have been life instead of years."

Counsel Talks.

Hon. W. R. Shaw, senior counsel for Dr. Dudley, was interviewed by a Commercial representative and gave the following statement:
"I have not been consulted in this matter and know nothing about it until I read it in the newspapers. I have always felt that the sentence imposed upon Dr. Dudley was a wrong one and after a few years I had fully intended to have asked that a pardon be granted Dr. Dudley, for I am in favor of it. I don't think Dr. Dudley is any worse than many other physicians." Asked his opinion in regard to the pardon, Mr. Shaw said: "I think that the sentiment of the county will be divided."
Asked if he did not think the midnight burial, manner of death at the last and the concealing of the girl's body had not influenced the court to a great degree, Mr. Shaw replied: "Those were the strong things against Dr. Dudley and since his stay in Thomaston he has had a most spectacular career which has kept him in the limelight more or less through the medium of the press."

Public Opposed.

Another prominent lawyer, who was approached on the subject, had the following to say:
"Public sentiment is strongly against a pardon being granted Dr. Dudley. He has now been allowed to chase over the state in an unusual manner so that the laws of our state are losing their dignity."
"If a pardon is granted Dr. Dudley it will certainly be a slap in the face of justice."
Parker P. Burleigh, Esq., junior counsel for Dr. Dudley, says:
"I cannot understand why Dr. Dudley should employ new counsel. His old counsel know the facts in his case from beginning to end and I do not believe there is a particle of new evidence in the case. I feel it is a most unfortunate affair and I have a great deal of sympathy for Dr. Dudley and his family. I think the sentence was unusually severe."
"If Dr. Dudley had not pleaded guilty until after he had told his connection in the affair, denying some of the damaging statements made by Kate Michaud, all of which had a great deal of influence with the court, I think he would have received a much less severe sentence. I don't think Dr. Dudley was any different than a great many other practicing physicians in Maine, and I think that the court in imposing sentence was influenced by the harrowing details related by Kate Michaud. The general public has never had the benefit of a statement from Dr. Dudley. But as to the advisability of granting a pardon at this time I do not care to be quoted as I have not been consulted regarding the pardon."
Sheriff Bryson was found at the county jail and to the Commercial said: "I was surprised to learn that Dr. Dudley thought for a moment of

VICIOUS CHILDREN BEFORE N.S. COURT

Boy Sent to Reform School and Two Girls Handled
Over to Truro Home for Delinquents.

Special to The Standard.

New Glasgow, N. S., Nov. 26.—A young lad belonging to Priestville was before the juvenile court yesterday charged with creating a disturbance in the schoolhouse at that place. It appears from the evidence that his parents have practically no control over him. The constable told how the boy would stay away from school, and on one occasion it was said he threatened to shoot one person. He was sent to the reform school at Halifax.

Two colored girls were also before the court charged with being on the street at a very late hour and acting disorderly. One of the girls was only 13 years old. The other was 15 years of age. They were both sent to the Home for Delinquent Girls at Truro.

asking for a pardon. I thought possibly after four or five years he might possibly consider taking such a course. Of course I have heard from time to time that a pardon was to be asked for but I thought it was only paper talk. I do not for a moment hold the idea that his case will be considered for a moment."
