METHODIST PASTORS MUST BE CAREFUL IN MARRYING SOLDIERS.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—All the Methodist pastors in Canada and Newfoundland have been forbidden to marry members of the Canadian contingent until they produce a written consent from the protective bride for them to go on active service. They must also produce a written consent for the marriage, from

Worth An Army Corps to Allies.
(London Express).

For thirty years the Tenthon has been proclaiming his greatness to the world, and many of us took him at his own valuation. The bald, "volish" lying of the German newspapers first shook our faith.
People could not be invincible who believed any fabrication that flattered their vanity, and the continually increasing absurdity of the lies is the best proof that things are going well for us. The editors of the German newspapers are, indeed, worth an army corps to the Al-

Mosquitoes in England.

A few hot days and the proximity of water will always bring what we pro-

Cutting Glass Without a Glass Cutter.

Frequently the cheap glass cutter is out of order at a time when repairs are needed. When in this difficulty, and there is time to cut, get a pan of cold water. Then take an iron having a sharp edge and beat it red hot. Draw the sharp edge of the heated iron across the glass where it is to be broken, and then draw the under side of the glass in the cold water, when it will break at the place seared by the hot iron with a clean, straight cut.

NORTHAMBERLAND
COUNTY COUNCIL

I. C. R. Level Crossings Subject of Spirited Discussion.

Newcastle, Jan. 21.—County council was mostly occupied today with routine business. Ten thousand three hundred and ninety-one dollars and twenty-three cents money was reported on hand.
The secretary-treasurer was authorized to borrow up to $4,000, if required, before taxes came in.
Deputy Sheriff Irving's accounts were passed. Boarding prisoners since July, 1914, considerable sum as stated previously, $18,235; cleaning jail, $10.
Councillor Gillis moved to memorialize the railway department re urgent need of closing the crossing at the southern end of the North West Bridge.
Councillor Vanderbeck said the government had promised to do this forty-two years ago. In 1908, when some cuttings were killed there he had moved a similar resolution in council and one had been passed annually since. He said the government would rather pay the $10, 000 a year to some high official than 50 cents to protect the farmers. The chief engineer has promised to build it. The county better wake up before next election.

Councillor Benson said that the railway had made plans for the crossing, the county to close the two level crossings, and the council had not closed them.
Why not carry out the plans of the engineer?

Councillor Aeneas said the government didn't care to do anything to remedy bad crossings. Two men were killed at a crossing near Rogersville. The officials had promised to do something, and they had done was to tear down a snow fence and a pile of sleepers.

Councillor Lavie-1 told that a contract had been let for an overhead bridge at that place.

Councillor Parker—It was Councillor Vanderbeck's motion to memorialize the government to close the level crossing at the N.
W. Bridge that kept the government from building the overhead there. That was three years ago.

Councillors Parker, Benson and Anderson were appointed committee to look into the matter.

Councillor O'Shaughnessy said that Jones' Crossing was more dangerous still.
He moved it be included in the memorial.
The whole matter was laid over till the next afternoon.

Canterbury, N. B., Jan. 19.—Despite the inclemency of weather, a large and enthusiastic assembly assembled at Orange hall last evening to listen to a temperance lecture by the Rev. H. H.
Stewart, most worthy patriarch of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America.

Rev. J. F. Flewelling occupied the chair and introduced the speaker.
Before the close of the meeting a division was organized with the following officers: W. P. S. H. Dyer, W. A. A.

LAST DRAUGHT AT SELECTION OF
SIR MAX AITKEN

London, Jan. 19.—(Montreal Gazette Cable).—The appointment of Sir Max Aitken, as the "eye-witness" correspondent with the Canadian forces has caused considerable astonishment here, while journalists are wondering what qualification he possesses for so important and exciting a duty.

The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says that, apart from his Canadian-born and having made his wealth in Canada, his claims for the appointment are not obvious, especially as there are many brilliant and experienced Canadian newspapermen who are keen to get the post. The correspondent suggests that Robert W. Service, a Yukon poet, would have been a more interesting choice.

HAMPTON PASTOR'S
WIFE SERIOUSLY ILL

Hampton, Jan. 19.—Much anxiety and sympathy is felt in the community on the condition of Mrs. H. H. Creed, wife of the pastor of the Methodist church, who is lying in a very serious state.
Some ten days ago Mrs. Creed came down with an attack of influenza, fever, of which she has been free for ten years, and shortly afterwards pneumonia symptoms appeared, both of which have weakened her very much. Now other complications have set in, and great fears are entertained for her recovery.

WEDDINGS

Beggs-Brown.
At 5 o'clock on Christmas day Miss Ethel Brown, of Quaco (N.B.), was united in marriage to Samuel Beggs, of Winnipeg, in the Zion Methodist church, Winnipeg, by the Rev. J. L. Batty, formerly pastor of the Zion Methodist church, Moncton. About two years ago Miss Ethel with her sister, Miss Mary, daughters of Roland Brown of Quaco, and their home in Winnipeg and identifying themselves with both church and social life, they steadily won for themselves an enviable reputation. Mr. Beggs is a well-known merchant of the city. Mr.
Beggs faces the future with most excellent prospects and is already surrounded by a large circle of true and sincere friends.

Logie-Morrison.

Chatham, N. B., Jan. 18.—(Special).— A wedding of much interest to Chatham people took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Colonel and Mrs.
J. D. B. MacKenzie, Seaford street, when their niece, Miss Grace Morrison, became the bride of Wallace W. Logie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logie, Rev.
John Harris, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who is one of Chatham's best known and most popular young ladies, was a rich and handsome girl, of ivory satin, cut in train with a shadow lace tunic and pearl trimmings and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses, sunflowers and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary, artistically decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, the drawing room, in which the ceremony was performed, being a bower of roses and carnations. Immediately after the ceremony a beautifully arranged supper was served. The only guests, outside to match, were Miss Ethel Clarke, Port Williams (and sid Jan 3 for Trinidad), Jan. 3, schr M. A. Belliveau, Bellevue Cove.

The groom, who is well known throughout the province, held a position in the public works, they will shake their home.
Wesford-Kelly.
Thursday, Jan. 21.
At the residence of the bride's mother in High street, St. John, yesterday the wedding was solemnized by Rev. J. H.
Anderson, pastor of the St. John Presbyterian church, of George Leonard Wesford and Miss Edith Elizabeth Kelly, both of St. John.

Simms-Fox.

Thursday, Jan. 21.
Miss Myrtle Fox, of Fairville, and Stockwell Simms, of St. John, were married at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Fairville Baptist church, by Rev. F.
R. Hayward. As the bride couple entered the church, Miss Katherine M. Fox, sister of the bride, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The young couple were unattended, and the bride was given away by her father, ex-Councillor William Fox. The bride looked charming in a tailored travelling suit of navy blue broadcloth, with a black picture hat trimmed with birds of paradise feathers, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr.
Simms is a son of Mrs. T. S. Simms and at present is a lieutenant in the detachment company of the 62nd Fusiliers.

Fitz-Mac.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated on Christmas night in Los Angeles (Cal.) when Miss Emma Bertha MacFarlane, R. N. of that city, but formerly of Marshfield (N.B.), was united in marriage with Walter T. Foster, also of that city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr.
McKenzie, Episcopal.

The bride, who looked charming in a gown of blue silk and allover lace, was given away by her uncle, William H.

WITHOUT VODKA—WHAT?

Will the Slav, Naturally Emotional and Aesthetic, Experience a New National Development?
(Chicago Tribune).

One of the world's most drunken cities has been made dry. In Petrograd the sale, not only of vodka but of beer and light wines, has been prohibited, even in the restaurants. A despotism, in this case, benevolent, has done what the legislative assemblies and executive power of democratic countries dare not do.

Of a Sunday under the old order the arrests for drunkenness exceeded belief.
Already they have been reduced to nothing. The Slav, a highly emotional being, living in a country of intense cold, has drunk prodigiously of pure spirits, and when his skin full of wine has colored in the gutter to withe the police.

What has been true of Petrograd and Moscow, where life was light and bright, has been true of the towns and villages upon which the storms descended and the snows fell and drifted. The Slav soil is full of beauty, full of emotionalism, poetry, and longing for the unsustainable aestheticism. The Slav day is full of heavy, hard, and plodding work.
Out of the boots which daily trod the cattle came the feet of Panlova.
The Slav life was the one of protest against condition and of reach for the unattainable, one of mysticism and misery, and the ladder out of the latter was vodka. By its means some heights of exalted emotion might be attained, even if the drop were into the bog of animalism.

With vodka a dull and dreary life might have its high lights. Vodka has been banished, and the Russian must live on the level of the feet of Panlova.
