

books, a deposit of five dollars is required, which is refunded when the books are returned.

You will never have the same opportunity of influencing others for good as you have while at College. Use it.

Gowns may be obtained from the janitor of the Arts building, and Science Students may also obtain gowns, overalls and caps, T-squares, etc., from the janitor of the Engineering building.

Keep up with your work. When once behind you cannot catch up.

New students are urged to connect themselves with the college societies. By doing this they will not only derive the benefits which the different societies aim to confer, but will get to know students of other years and other faculties.

Do not treat the men collecting subscriptions for College societies or other objects as public enemies, but rather lighten their work by subscribing as often and as promptly as you possibly can.

It is the duty of every student to support in every way he can all the athletic interests of the University.

If you are in doubt about any matter do not hesitate to ask a Professor or Senior Student; they will always be glad to give you any advice or assistance, and it may save you much trouble and annoyance later on to be set right at the beginning of the session.

BEFORE MAKING PURCHASES REFER TO OUR ADVERTISEMENTS, and patronise as far as possible those whose ads. appear there.

The General Secretary desires to be considered the friend of every student. His office hours will be announced at the beginning of the session.

Take every opportunity of improving yourself socially; your studies will not suffer for an occasional evening spent in social intercourse.