

The Metropolitan Book and Pamphlet Series.

The Delsarte System of Physical Culture: This is the most comprehensive work on the subject ever issued, and the excellence of its system is guaranteed by the name of the author, MRS. ELEANOR GEORGE, who is well known as one of the most successful teachers of Physical Culture and Expression in the United States.
$1.00 per Copy.

Good Manners: This book explains the most approved method of deportment in every circumstance of polite society. It is replete with valuable hints and suggestions for the guidance, not only of young people desirous of acquiring refined manners, but of persons of maturer age in regard to the nicer or more rare points of etiquette.
$1.00 per Copy.

Social Life: This book sets forth those points of Practical Etiquette regarding which a novice in polite society desires to be fully instructed. It also contains an appendix of approved styles of invitations and replies. Those who acquaint themselves fully with the rules laid down in "Good Manners" will find how they may be applied in "Social Life."
$1.00 per Copy.

Home-Making and House-Keeping: This is a hand-book of Household Affairs, convenient for guidance in all those matters a knowledge of which constitutes that pearl among women—the good housekeeper. It is equally valuable to prospective brides, youthful housekeepers and those versed in economic and methodical home-making and housekeeping.
$1.00 per Copy.

The Pattern Cook-Book: This is a complete, practical and reliable work on the culinary science, embracing the Chemistry of Food; the Furnishing of the Kitchen; How to Choose Good Food, a choice selection of Standard Recipes; Meats, Vegetables, Bread, Cakes, Pies, Desserts; Proper Food for the Sick; Items of interest in the Kitchen, etc., etc.
$1.00 per Copy.

Beauty, its Attainment and Preservation: No effort has been spared to make this the most complete and reliable work ever offered to those who desire to be beautiful in mind, manner, feature and form. Defects in each direction are philosophically and scientifically discussed, in connection with suggestions and remedies concerning the same.
$1.00 per Copy.

Needle-Craft, ARTISTIC AND PRACTICAL: This is a practical book upon Needle-Work, in which the fascinating art is clearly and carefully described and illustrated, due attention being given to every department of Needle-Work in vogue. It contains hundreds of beautiful engravings, with full instructions as to their reproduction, and valuable hints regarding the manner of work and most suitable materials.
$1.00 per Copy.

Needle and Brush, USEFUL AND DECORATIVE: This is a novel and entertaining work on Home Decoration. It includes fancy work and decorative painting so amply illustrated and carefully described that the least experienced amateur cannot fail to comprehend and follow the instructions given. The chapters on China Painting, Sketching in Water-Colors, Flower Painting in Oils, and Helps for Amateur Artists are of especial interest. The popular Roman and Sorrento Embroideries also receive special attention.
$1.00 per Copy.

The Art of Knitting: The only book devoted wholly to Knitting ever issued, and introducing all the rudiments, from the casting on of stitches to the development of plain and intricate designs. No detail is left unexplained, and each of the almost numberless illustrations found on its pages is fully and correctly explained by directions which are extremely easy to follow.
50 Cents per Copy.

The Art of Dress-Making, STANDARD AND MODERN METHODS: The finest and most reliable book upon Dress-Making ever prepared and issued. The complete art, from the drawing of the above threads to the most intricate knotting of the strands and working threads, illustrated in every step of the work assist the purchaser of this book in developing its designs.
50 Cents per Copy.

The Art of Crocheting: A handsomely illustrated and very valuable book of instructions upon the fascinating occupation of Crocheting, which is a guide to the beginner and a treasure of new ideas to the expert in Crochet-Work. Every instruction is accurate, every engraving a faithful copy of the design it represents.
50 Cents per Copy.

The Art of Modern Lace-Making, ANCIENT AND MODERN METHODS: This work gives complete instructions for making Battenberg, Honiton, Point, Russian, Princess and Luchesse Laces, and contains numerous illustrations of the braids used in modern Lace-Making. A separate department is devoted to handsome designs in darned net in plain and raised work.
50 Cents per Copy.

The Arts of Wood-Carving and Pyrography or Poker-Work: The largest manual of the kind ever prepared for publication, containing illustrations for flat carving, intaglio or sunk carving, carving in the round, and chip-carving, and also nearly four hundred engravings of modern, Renaissance, Rococo, Rocaille, German, Norwegian, Swedish and Italian Designs—also valuable as models and suggestions for the decoration of a house.
50 Cents per Copy.

Drawing and Painting: This work gives instruction in Pencil Drawing—Sketching from Nature—Flowers in Water-Colors—Oil Colors—Oil Painting on Textiles—Crayon Work in Black and White—Pastel Pictures—Painting on Glass—Painting on Plaques—Screens—Tapestry Painting, etc.
50 Cents per Copy.

Masquerade and Carnival, THEIR CUSTOMS AND COSTUMES: An enlarged and revised edition of this popular work, containing all the important points concerning festivities of this class, and displaying between two and three hundred illustrations of historical, legendary, traditional, Shakespearean, national and original costumes, with descriptions of them, especially in reference to colors and fabrics.
50 Cents per Copy.

Artistic Alphabets for Marking and Engrossing: Includes fancy letters of various sizes, from those suitable for marking a blanket to those dainty enough for the finest handkerchief, and also gives the fashionable script-initial alphabet in several sizes, and numerous cross-stitch and bead-work alphabets. It also contains a department of religious and society emblems.
25 Cents per Copy.

Pastimes for Children: A large, illustrated pamphlet, containing instructive amusements for rainy-day and other leisure hours. It is filled with drawing designs and games; instructions for mechanical toys, cutting out a menagerie, making a circus of stuffed animals, and constructing dolls and their houses, furniture and costumes; puzzles, charades and conundrums; and much other interesting matter.
25 Cents per Copy.

Smocking and Fancy Stitches for the Decoration of Garments: An illustrated treatise on smocking or honeycombing, by both American and English methods. It also contains a large number of decorative stitches, such as plain and fancy feather-stitching, cat-stitching and herring-bone, briar, chain and loop stitches. Also a separate department of Popular Designs in Cross-Stitch for embroidering garments.
15 Cents per Copy.

Mother and Babe: Devoted to the comfort and care of mother and babe, containing full information concerning the proper care of infants and the preparation of their wardrobes, and specifying the various articles necessary for a baby's first outfit. Also, treating of the necessities belonging to the health, comfort and care of the expectant mother, and containing hints as to the proper clothing for ladies in delicate health.
15 Cents per Copy.

The Perfect Art of Canning and Preserving: Explanatory of canning and preserving, and containing full instructions regarding jams, marmalades, jellies, preserves, canning (including corn, peas, beans, tomatoes, asparagus, etc., etc.), pickling, catsups and relishes, besides many hints and suggestions as to selecting fruit, the easiest and quickest methods of doing good work, etc., etc.
15 Cents per Copy.

The Correct Art of Candy-Making at Home: A pamphlet containing reliable instructions for successful candy-making at home, and divided into departments, which include cream candies, bonbons, nut and fruit candies, paste drops, medicated lozenges, and candied fruits, flowers and nuts.
15 Cents per Copy.

Dainty Desserts: In this the housekeeper will find directions for the preparation of dainties adapted to the palate of the epicure or the laborer, with numberless recipes for puddings and sauces, pies, creams, custards and French, fancy and frozen desserts, etc., etc.
15 Cents per Copy.

Extracts and Beverages: The preparation of syrups, refreshing beverages, colognes, perfumes and various toilet accessories, invaluable alike to the belle and the housekeeper. No one knows better than they the unreliability of many of the perfumes and flavoring extracts placed on the market for toilet and household use; and often from boudoir or from kitchen the victim cries: "I wish I could prepare them myself."
15 Cents per Copy.

Bees and Bee-Keeping: Profusely illustrated, and treats of the details necessary to successful bee-keeping, whether conducted by the amateur or advanced apiarist, how and where to buy, where to locate and how to conduct an apiary and control bees; and brood rearing, queen rearing, swarming, gathering and extracting honey.
15 Cents per Copy.

Birds and Bird-keeping: Illustrated with cage-birds, cages and modern appliances for cages, accompanied by full instructions for the care, food, management, breeding and treatment of diseases of songsters and other feathered pets. Of great service to the professional and amateur bird-fancier.
15 Cents per Copy.

Nursing and Nourishment for Invalids: A pamphlet which places within the reach of every one interested in caring for invalids, explicit instructions and valuable advice regarding the best methods and necessary adjuncts in the sick room. Care, comfort and convalescence are fully discussed, and many recipes for the most nourishing foods and beverages for invalids are given.
15 Cents per Copy.

Tableaux, Charades and Conundrums is the title of our new pamphlet upon this class of entertainments and amusements. Charades in all their different varieties, and tableaux and the details necessary to their perfect production are described and discussed. The department devoted to conundrums is overflowing with wit and merriment.
15 Cents per Copy.

Fancy Drills, FOR EVENING ENTERTAINMENTS: A new pamphlet, containing directions and instructions for the production of twelve new fancy drills suitable for school, church, club and society entertainments. Among the entertainments offered are the famous broom and fan drills, the new Columbian drill; the empire, doll, tambourine, flower and fancy dress drills, etc.
15 Cents per Copy.

Weddings and Wedding Anniversaries is the title of a new pamphlet just issued by us, which is invaluable to maids and matrons, bachelors and benedicts, and the bride and groom elect. It contains full information concerning etiquette of weddings, from the announcement of the engagement to the beginning of the wedding tour, and describes all the anniversaries, from the cotton to the diamond wedding. Wedding invitations and announcements, church and home weddings, receptions, wedding breakfasts; a spring-time wedding; wedding presents and the mode of giving them; the wedding of widows; and the duties of maids of honor, bridesmaids, the best man and ushers are fully discussed. Information about materials and trimmings for the general trousseau, and illustrations of bridal gowns, bridesmaids' dresses and other bridal toilettes are also given. Every bride elect and matron should send for a copy of "Weddings and Wedding Anniversaries."
15 Cents per Copy.

NOTE.—We will send any of the above Books and Pamphlets to any address, on receipt of price.

The Delineator Publishing Co. of Toronto

(LIMITED).

33 RICHMOND STREET WEST, TORONTO, CANADA.