Ottawa, September 21, 1926

Dear Mr. Ringwood:

It is indeed good of you to write me in the terms of your letter of the 15th. The result is very difficult to explain - that is on any basis that one likes to accept. It is indeed discouraging, but the only thing to do is to take it in the best spirit possible.

Really I cannot believe I saw you in Edmonton. If so, my mind must have been completely absorbed in something else, for if my mind had followed my eyes I would have known you in a second. I am very sorry you did not drive the recognition into me.

Most sincerely yours,

F. H. Ringwood, Esq.,
11116 - 90th Avenue,
Edmonton, Alberta.
