

opposite the Reserve of the Indians of that place, as the latter depend mainly on fish for a subsistence and of course it exasperates them to see the head taken out of their mouths by White fishermen.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient servant,
H. S. [Signature]
of Indian Affairs.
