

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
HOME AND SCHOOL OF INDUSTRY.

The Twelfth Annual Meeting of the "HOME AND SCHOOL OF INDUSTRY," was held on Tuesday, the 22d May, in the St. Lawrence Hall, kindly granted by Messrs. Hogan & Penn, for that purpose.

The girls from the Institution were present. Their cheerful and healthy appearance seemed to give general satisfaction.

Dr. WILKES presided, and having opened the meeting with prayer, read the following Reports:—

The Committee of the Home and School of Industry feel much pleasure in meeting the friends and supporters of the Institution on this its twelfth anniversary, and, in submitting their Report, desire to express gratitude to God for its increased usefulness and measure of success that has marked its progress during the past year.

The objects embraced by this Institution are now so well known that it is unnecessary again to advert to them.

The training of young girls for service, and giving them a plain education, although considered the principal object of the Institution, is not more important than the supplying deserving women
