The Deaf Can HEAR

distinctly every sound—even whispers do not escape them when they are properly assisted. Deafness is due to the ear drums from some cause becoming defective. I offer you the same hope of hearing as you have of seeing from the oculist who supplies glasses to help your eyesight—for I apply the same common sense principle in my method of restoring hearing. The weakened or impaired parts must be reinforced by suitable devices to supply what is lacking and necessary to hear. Among the 390,000 people who have been restored to perfect hearing there has been every condition of deafness or defective hearing. No matter what the cause or how long standing the case the testimonials sent me show marvelous results.

Common-Sense Ear Drums

have restored to me my own hearing—that's how I happened to discover the secret of their success in my own desperate endeavors to be relieved of my deafness after physicians had repeatedly failed.

Common-Sense Ear Drums are made of a soft, sensitized material, comfortable and safe to wear. They are out of sight when worn, and easily adjusted by the wearer.

It is certainly worth your while to investigate. Before you send any money just drop me a line. I want to send you free of charge my book on deafness and plenty of evidence to prove to you that I am entirely worthy of your confidence. Why not write me today?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

WANTS TO STUDY POULTRY.

Where can I learn the poultry business? Could you give a few particulars about Guelph College? When is the best time to attend, and what would be the cost?

B. P. D. L.

Ans.—After reading all you can on the subject from bulletins, farm journals, and practical treatises, get a small flock and care for them yourself. There is no better method of learning anything than to engage therein. After becoming accustomed to caring for the poultry, a course at the Ontario Agricultural College will be found helpful. The regular four-years' course for the B. S. A. degree commences each year in September, and continues to the middle of April. Two years of this course leads to a diploma. Special short courses are given, and poultry is included in these. Write President G. C. Creelman, O. A. C., Guelph, for college calendar.

PASTURING AND FEEDING PIGS

1. In "The Farmer's Advocate" of August 29th, you had an article entitled, "Pigstye vs. Pasture." In it was advocated pasturing pigs in paddocks of rye, rape, clover, and peas and oats, respectively. How many pigs do you allow to the acre?

2. Could any of the proprietary calf foods be used in place of milk for the young pigs just after weaning?

A. S. W.

Ans.—1. The number of pigs which may be pastured on an acre divided into paddocks, depends largely on the size of the pigs and the crops grown. The crops depend on soil conditions and the season. Then, again, if any concentrate feeding is practiced, less forage is needed. The acre, divided into four paddocks of one-quarter acre each, to be pastured in turn, would leave only one-quarter acre in use at a time. From ten to twelve good-sized shoats would likely be found enough in this. It is impossible to state definitely. You can only be governed by the way they keep the feed grazed off, moving them from one paddock to another as this takes place.

2. If these were any particular benefit to young pigs, the manufacturers would surely make it a strong point of their advertising.

HEAL-ALL-ENSILING ALFALFA.

1. Kindly tell what the enclosed plant is. You will readily see it is a running vine, taking root about every half-inch. It is very closely matted, choking everything else out, and seems to be in patches that keep gradually widening. I first saw it two years ago in my alfalfa field, and now there is a patch on my lawn. It has a pale-blue blossom. Is it considered a very bad weed? What is the best way to eradicate it?

2. I have a field of alfalfa which is ready to cut now, but will be difficult to cure for hay with the present kind of weather. Would you recommend mixing it with corn and putting into silo?

W. M.

Ans.—1. The weed is heal-all, or self-heal, a perennial, which often gives trouble in lawns. The seed is quite a common impurity in timothy and other grass seeds. It yields to thorough cultivation and rotation of crops. On the lawn, it should be carefully spudded out.

2. In a season like the present, ensiling the third cutting of alfalfa seems to be about the only method to get it harvested in good condition. It is being practiced on many farms this year, among them being the farms run in connection with Government Institutions. Would try at about one of alfalfa to eight of corn, cut and tramped well.

Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi, was making his maiden speech in the Senate. "My brain reels at the ideal!" he shrieked. "My soul is consumed within me! My speech fails! I am at a loss for words! I am burning with indignation!"

"You are out of order," announced Presiding Officer "Sunny Jim" calmly.

"I guess that is what's the matter with me," said the Mississippian disgustedly, as he sank into his seat.
