GOSSIP.

A. H. Eckford, High River Horse Ranch, writes the "Advocate" from Hamilton, Ont.: "I made the following purchases at Mr. Flatt's big sale of Shorthorn cattle, held on the 20th inst. I will ship these cattle to my ranch at High River for breeding purposes after they have been shown at the Inter-Western Exhibition at Calgary: Dark roan heifer, Rose Bud XII, 48858, calved 25th October, 1902, bred by Geo. Amos, Moffat, Ont., winner of five first prizes in 1903, at Guelph, Galt, Milton, Campbellville and Rockwood; Trout Creek King, roan, calved 11th April, 1903, bred by W. D. Flatt, by Spicy Marquis (imp.), the champion bull at Toronto, sold to Sir Wm. Van Horne for $3,000, out of Kirklevington Bloom, also a prizewinner, purchased by W. D. Flatt in the U. S. for $800."

AS A HAPPY MEDIUM.

A gentleman had a colored servant, who could not be taught to serve things at the left hand of guests at the table. At length the gentleman hit upon an ingenious expedient. He told Peter he must always hand the plates and the other dishes to the guests at the button-hole side of the jacket. This plan worked admirably for some time; but one day there came a guest who wore a double-breasted coat. Poor Peter, in dismay, looked first at one side of it, then at the other, and finally, casting a look of despair at his master, he exclaimed: "Buttons on both sides, massa!" and handed the plate right over the gentleman's head.
