Bro. Helm leaves on Wednesday for Wallaceburg:—

Dear Sir and Brother:—Permit us on this occasion to present you with this brief address, as we, the members of Branch No. 19, C. M. B. A., Ingersoli, could not let you take your departure without showing that respect which we hold for you. You have held the office of Marshal in our Branch for a number of years, which office you filled with credit to yourself and satisfaction to the Branch. Now you are about leaving for a distant town; and wherever your lot may be cast we hope you will always think of the members of this branch and the many pleasant hours we have spent together. That your future prosperity will turn out most beneficial to yourself and family, is the wish of the members of the C. M. B. A., Ingersoll. Signed on behalf of the Branch,

John Frezell, 1st Vice Pres.,

Open Meeting of Branch 26.

Open Meeting of Branch 26.

An opening meeting of Branch 26, we learn from the Montreal Star, was held in the St. Patrick's Hall, Alexander street, on Monday, May 31, and was made the occasion of a very enjoyable entertainment given under the direction of the members of the society. Mr. M. Sharkey presided, and there were also on the platform Rev. Father Quintivan, Rev. Fathers Lussier, Driscoll and Fallon, the resident Grand officers of the association, the presidents of the sister branches and other sister societies.

Bro. Sharkey opened the proceedings by a happy address of welcome, in course of which he thanked the rev. pastor of St. Patrick's for his kindness to the branch.

An address was delivered by Mr. Justice Curran which evoked much applause. Judge Curran began his remarks by a reference to the excellence of the C. M. B. A., and the inducements offered by this fraternal Association, which was based upon such principles as must ensure its permanence. Members could teel that their money was being safely invested and properly managed. The speaker referred to the self-sacriticing efforts of those who had contributed to the success of the association up to the present time, placing it upon a firm basis and in a position to do a great deal of good in the future.

He profited by the opportunity afforded him to call attention to one of the most deserving movements that had been set on foot for a considerable time, namely, the Testimonial to Mrs. James Sadlier. Those who enjoyed the advantage of this association or kindred societies could hardly realize the good that had been done in the early days of the Irish immigrants landing upon the shores of this country and of the American Republic, by the good work of Mrs. James Sadlier.

He gave a brief sketch of the life and labors of that distinguished lady, referring to many of her works, particularly "Willie Burke," "Con O'Regan" and the "Confederate Chieftains." He said that no statesman on this continent could boast of having done as much good for the Irish he worthily acknowledged by all the sons and daughters of Erin, who dwelt on these western shores.

Chancellor Joseph E. Morrison also made an able address on the advantages of the C. M. B. A., in course of which he gave a brief resume of its history, the work it had done, and the costs of membership. Brother Morrison's address was a most eloquent and practical effort, and on his resuming his seat was heartily applauded.

The musical and other selections comprised of seventeen numbers, were all capitally given. Amongst those who took part were: Mrs. Turner, Miss B. McGowan, Miss McAndrew, Misses Ward, Misses Reynolds, Miss Lane and the St. Jean Baptiste choir, Mr. Richard B. Milloy, Master J. Shea, Mr. Delacourt, Mr. J. H. Parker, Mr. Rice, Branch 26 Glee Club, St. Gabriel's Quartette. The musical arrangements were under the direction of Bro. J. S. Shea, who is deserving of much praise for the excelence of the entertainment. And the branch is to be congratulated on the success which attended the inaugural recting in its new hall.

Toronto, June 6, 1897.

The regular meeting of St. Leo Court 581 held on last Wednesday night was well attended. Among the visiting brothers present were District Deputies J. Caderot and J. Neander. Two new members were ballotted for and several applications for membership were received. A correspondence was read inviting the members to attend Grand Musical Vespers in St. Joseph's church, Leslle street, on Sunday, June 18, being the occasion of the lessing of the new organ which has just been completed. The invitation was unanimously accepted and all members notified to attend. It was decided to take part in the celebration in honor of the Queen's Jubliec on June 22. Bros. J. Caderot and J. Neander gave short addresses complimenting the Court on the expeditions manner in which they transact business, ard also for their rapid increase in membership. The next meeting will be held on June 18.

St. Many's branch of the League of the Cross Temperance Society, of Toronto, gave an entertainment of unusual excellence, for amatures, in the form of a drams, entitled "A Social Glass," in St. Andrew's hall, Monday evening, 31st May, to a large audience, who on every side gave evidences of appreciation of the efforts of the committee and the performers. The casic was composed as follows: Mr. Wm. Henry as "Chas. Thornly;" Mr. Jas. Kelly as "Dr. Slater;" Mr. James E. Whelanas "James Hollis;" Mr. Joseph Downey as "Robert Brittle; Miss Annie Crowley as "Neilte Nettiteby;" Mr. Dan Murphy as "Harold Hadley; Miss Louisa Currie as "Mrs. Farley," and Professor O Brien the well-known phrenologist, as "John Farley." The performers should indeed be concratulated as it was the first appearance for some of them in public. All acted their respective parts splendedly, not a single flaw being observed. Miss Lena Switt, as "Eva Thorley," by her fine appearance and deportment, combined with her dramatic calent captured the hearts of the audience. Miss Crowley made a decided hit, and was the life and soul of the play, being repeatly applauded. Miss Louisa Currie as "Mrs. Farley" acted her different part very creditably. Messrs. Henry, Kelly and Murphy represented their different parts splendidly, while Mr. Joseph Downey (as "Bob Brittle") carried all before him. Mr. Whelan as the villian ("James Hollis") was greeted with hisses, which speaks well for his delineation of that character. He has a fine stage appearance and acted his part with Intense feeling. Professor O Brien as "John Farley" appeared very life-like, in his heavy part, Mr. O Brien has splendid citts. Special praise should be given to the worthy chaplain, Rev. Wm. Mc. Can. who was instrumental in organizing and carrying out the drama. Father McCann who was instrumental in organizing and carrying out the drama. Father McCann who was instrumental in organizing and carrying out the drama. Father McCann who was instrumental in organizing and until it culminated in unqualified success. Professor O'Brien is also entitled to great credit, the caste being under his direction. Among the clergy present were: Rev. J. J. McCann, V. G., Fathers Grogan, Dollard, Minehan, McEntee and Father Wm. McCann. Ebert's orchestra discoursed sweet music durithe excepting.

Ebert's orchestra, discoussed sweeting, held on ing the evening. At the regular bi monthly meeting, held on Tuesday evening, June 1, a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the committee and the drama actors who won the gratitude of the League for giving, as was acknowledged by every one, one of the best entertainments ever held in St. Andrew's hall.

ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON.

Sodality Reception.

In this age of religious indifference and boasted scepticism, it is refreshing sometimes to see virtue and grase, piety and faith assert themselves with inspiring sublimity. It is in the fields of the Church, by the slar of Our Lady that these flowers of psace and joy and devotion acquire their growth and spread their perfume unto eternal life. Give me a standpoint, exclaimed the great mathamatician of antiquity, and I will move the world. . . Give us an upright, noble, fearless, Christian womanhood and the world is saved!

Our little city like every other place where the Catholic interest is not neglected, has a Sodality. This means that Mary, the sweet Maiden of Israel whom generations shall continue to call Blessed, has, during the past month, seen her children prostrate at her feet, breathing in love and supplication and prayer a homage sweet to Go1 and edifying to man. Nature, which at this time is lavish of beauty, bud and blossom, was likewise made to pay a tribute to the Mother of Him whose works recount His splendor. It was love's labor in its truest sense. In return, Our Blessed Lady seems to have showered her favors upon the society, which to day has a membership of sixty-five, a splendid library and in every way flourishing. For this result much is due to the Ladies of Loretto, whose untiring zeal on behalf of education and religion in Ontario is too well known to need lengthy comment. The society has also been fortunate in the selection of its officers. We shall only name the present efficient President, Miss Conway, and the zenous librarian, Miss Bawden, passing others equally meritorious.

Sunday evening last a reception was held, some ten aspirants presenting themselves. Modestly attired in black, wearing white veils and the insignia of their order, and bearing lighted tapers, the young ladies reverentially marched from the entrance of the church to the railing, where they were received and addressed by Mgr. Farrelly, the venerable parish priest, wh this our pilgrimage towards a better home.

May the Incarnate Son, through His virginal Mother, imbue us all with His spirit and charity that, having extolled His number time, we may glorify Him in eternity!

The annual concert of the pupils of Loretto The annual concert of the publis of Lorento Academy in honor of the Episcopate of Bishop Dowling was given in the assembly hall of the academy last evening. The large room was crowded to the doors, not even standing-room being available, and all present thoroughly enjoyed the various numbers on the programme. Bishop Dowling was present and seated with him immediately in front of the platform or stage ware. Wer McEysy ughly enjoyed the various numbers present programme. Bishop Dowling was present and seated with him immediately in front of the platform or stage were: Mgr. McEvay, Fathers Ilinchey. Brady, Mahoney, Rev. T. Geoghegan, J. T. Routh, Col. Moore, S. O. Greening, C. J. Bird, Inspector Ballard, of the Public schools, T. O'Meara, London, and Walter Duffy, of Rochester. The platform was decorated with palms, and evergreens and looked very pretty. The opening chorus was one of congratulation to the Bishop and was especially prepared for the occasion. It was sung by all of the scholars. The other charuses by the young ladies and scholars was one of congratulation to the Bishop and was especially prepared for the occasion. It was sung by all of the scholars. The other choruses by the young ladies and scholars were well sung, and the work of those who took part in them would have done credit to many opera organizations. An address of welcome to His Lordship was also read by Miss B. Rice. The fan drill and chorus was especially worthy of meution, the little folks acquitting themselves very creditably indeed. The Grand Military Galop and March Celebre Ire Suite were played on four pianos. Several of the young pianists give promise of a bright future in the musical world. Miss Duffy's recitation, The Relief of Lucknow, was well rendered, as was also Bently's selection, Bay Billy, Miss Duffy showed much taste and skill of execution in her violin solo. The pantomime was exceedingly well put on and elicited from the large audience considerable applause. A cantata, The Pleiades, or Seven Sisters, was very interesting. The roles were taken by the following: Merope, Miss H. Duffy; Aleyone, Miss E. Dake; Celeno, Miss C. Duffy; Sterope, Miss K. Frawley; Tayeta, Miss Vowles; Mercury, Miss Greening; heralds, the Misses A. Kavanagh, B. Lovering, S. Ronan, O'Neil and Kehoe.

Miss Duffy made a charming queen and sang the s los allotted to her very effectively. She is the possessor of a voice of excellent quality and she knows how to use it to the best advantage. The other soloists also sang well.

Nelligan's orchestra supplied the accompaniments for the vocalists and played a number of selections. The three tableaux, which concluded a most enjoyable evening's entertainment, were well staged.

After the national anthem had been sung the young ladies and children assembled on the platform and Bishop Dowling briefly addressed them. After congratulating them on the success of their concert he thanked them for their kindness in inviting him to be present. He spoke for some time on obedience—a lost virtue, he said, which was always to be found in Loretto. He was fond of the fragrance of the flowers and singing of the birds, but to him no flowers were more fragrant nor birds sang sweeter than those of Loretto. He remembered well the day when the ground on which Loretto now stands was purchased, and he watched with interest the progress of the institution ever since. The first Bishop of Hamilton had planted it, other Bishops had nourished it, but Christ it was who gave the increase. He cited many of his boyhood experiences while at college, and pointed out to the children the differences in the colleges of former times and to day. He urged all the girls to grow up to be model, and not new, women, and of the latter he said, picusly: "From her, ob. God, deliver us!" The Bishop concluded his remarks by pointing out the happiness to be obtained by living pure Christian lives. Col. Moore and Rev. Thomas Geoghegan made short congratulatory addresses, after which Mgr. McEvay moved that the Bishop be requested to give the scholars a holiday to morrow to afford them a rest after their hard work. The motion was seconded in a next little speech by Public school Inspector Ballard, and unanimously carried, the Bishop gladly acceding to the request.

On Sunday, the Feast of Pentecost, the Bishop administered the sacrament of confirmation to one hundred and twelve children and ten adults at St. Mary's cathedral at the children for some time on the excellence of the sacrament they were about to receive and the abundant graces attached to a worthy reception of it.

out that work by the operations of the Holy Ghost.

The music rendered by the choir was worthy of special praise.

In the afternoon the Bishop confirmed the adults, nearly all of whom are converts. He explained to them, at considerable length, the work of the Holy Ghost in guiding and directing the Church.

The newly confirmed children came to the Cathedral Sunday afternoon, when Mgr. McEvay presented them with souvenirs of confirmation—medals and agnus deis.

On Monday his Lordship started on his confirmation tour through the diocese. The following are the appointments for confirmation during the month of June:

June 7, Elora; 8, Drayton and Macton; 10, Chepstow and Walkerton; 11, North Brant; 12, Walkerton; 13, Deemerton and Midmay; 15, Teeswater; 16, Formose; 17, (Corpus Christi), Carlsruhe; 18, Carlsuhe; 19, Ayton and Durham; 20, Mt. Forest; 21, Proton; 22, Dundalk and Markdale; 23, Glenelg; 24, Markdale; 25, Griffin's Corners and Chatsworth; 26, Block; 27, Owen Spand; 28, Wiarton.

BISHOP DOWLING VISITS ARTHUR.

BISHOP DOWLING VISITS ARTHUR. As was announced in the last week's Enterprise, His Lordship, Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, arrived in town on Saturday for the nurpose of administering confirmation in St. John's church on Sunday. He came by way of Goldstone, where he was met by Rev. Father's Doherty and Dube and driven to Arthur. In the afternoon he examined the candidates for confirmation, who had congregated in the church for the purpose, on their knowledge of Christian doctrine, and, it is needless to say, was well pleased with their proficiency. On Sunday morning early Mass was begun by Father Doherty at 7:39. A little after S His Lordship entered the church to celebrate Mass and confirm the children, who, to the number of one hundred and fifteen—boys and girls—bad assembled in the school house, in charge of the Sisters, and by whom they were marshaled as they marched two abreast, each carrying a taper and took up their allotted positions in the two ranges of pews on either side of the centre aisle of the church. Each boy wore a white badge on his arm, and the girls were very becomingly attired in white robes and crowns of roses, truly emblematical of the virtues blooming in their young hearts and lives. It is always a pleasing, not to say an edifying, sight to see such a procession of the tender youth of both sexes, as, with modest and becoming demeanor, they march in well regulated order to partske of their first Communion, or present themselves to receive the sacrament of confirmation. It is, doubtless, the happiest period of their lives, and one in which pious impressions are made on their minds which in most cases endure throughout the many and checkered years of after life. At the close of the ceremonies His Lordship addressed a tew words of instruction, words of encouragement and words of admonition, after which he administered to all those who had been confirmed a pledge of total abstinence from intoxicating liquors until they would reach the age of twenty-one they could find the remained of their own accord renew their pledges for

Keep a good conscience and thou shalt always have joy.—The Imitation.

OBITUARY. JAMES FARREL, BARRIE.

James Farrel, Barrie,
on Friday, 28th May, the people of Barrie, and especially the Catholic community, were shocked and grieved beyond expression by the intelligence of the fatal accident near Burke's Falls, in which James Farrel was the victim.
Mr. Farrel was repairer of cars, at this station, to which he had gone some ten days before in the discharge of his duties, and while standing on a flat car next the conductor's van (when for shunting purposes the rest of the ballast train was moved from the van) a sudden jerk from the detached part of the train caused him to fall on the track, which resulted in his death.
His remains were at once brought to Barrie,
His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from St. Mary's church to the Catholic cemetery. It was one of the largest funerals ever seen in Barrie, about two hundred G. T. R. employers attended in a body and led the funeral procession. Then came the C. M. B.
A. (over fifty in number) of which society the deceased was a member.

employers attended in a body and need the C. M. B. A. (over fifty in number) of which society the deceased was a member.

The services at the church were conducted by Father Sweeney, who preached a most touching, eloquent and appropriate sermon.

Mr. Farrei was married nearly two years ago, to Miss Cavanagh of this parish. The grief stricken young widow who has been left with a child ten months old, has the heartief sympathy of the entire community.

No wonder that his devoted young wife is prostrated, and that her family, to whom has brother, are grieved. Yet, as St. I aul says, they should not grieve like those who have no hope. This life is not all, and James Farrel has acted from the conviction of one who realized in his life this principle. He and his wife were monthly communicants. Even when he had been attending to his duties on Saturday night, and even on Sunday morning, he would not on any account miss Mass on Sunday. All honor to the family to which he belongs and to the parents who brought him up, for these are the only consolations that remain to them now.

Will people take a lesson from his life and from his death? What a lesson for the rail way employees, who are frequently, nay continually, in imminent danger. How many even of the includes and the sexemplary life, actuated by religious fath, was the best guarantee of this. Will his sudden death though sudden was not unprovided. His exemplary life, actuated by religious fath, was the best guarantee of this. Will his sudden teath to wom may be careless about their salvay.

was the best guarantee of this. Will his sudden death teach to rativary employees and others who may be careless about their salvation, the lesson which it is calculated to teach? This short but imperfect notice is offered as a tribute to his memory, and as a feeble expression of heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved widow, his parents and friends, by his pastor I have known him well, admired his steriing qualities of head and heart, his religious fatth and fervent piety, which were as fresh and untainted on the day of his death as they were of the day on which he lett his good parents in Ireland. Requisecut in pace?

RETURNS THANKS.

Clergyman Writes on Behalf of Grateful People-Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Their Health and They Wish Other Sugerers to Know It—A Letter That Will Bring Hope to Many—No Other Medicine Gets Such Voluntary Praise.

The following letter written by the Rev. Wm. Lawson, Methodist minister at Richibucto, N. B., attests in the strongest manner the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and a perusal of it will suggest why this great medicine is so popular in thousands of homes throughout the Dominion-it cures when other medicines fail.

Richbiucto, N. B., April 26th, 1897. Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.:

Dear Sirs-I am glad to furnish you the following voluntarily given testimonal, with the fullest permission to give the names and place. They do this as a thank-offering to God and your medicine. Mrs. Wm. Warman of Molus River (near here) says her son Alden was sickly from birth. He could hardly ever retain food, and his parents had but little hopes that he would live long, and the doctors who attended him were of the same opinion. Till seven years of age he continued in that condition. Then the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills was begun, and under them he recovered and is now a strong, healthy boy. Mr. Warman, the boy's father, also adds his testimonial to the great value of Pink Pills, saying: - "I suffered for years with a bad back, until I used Dr. Williams' Piuk Pills and they cured me." Miss Annie Warman adds this evidence with enthusiasm and freedom. "I was weak and and freedom. "I was weak and sickly, and did not know the blessing of good health till I took Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I used eight boxes and have since enjoyed the best of health. In fact I am never sick now.

Here you have three members of a family restored to health by the use of your medicine, and you would almost covet their good health and genial ways, largely resulting from such health. They wish you to freely use these facts to help other sufferers, and I am able as their minister to certify to the facts above stated.

Sincerely yours, Wm. Lawson. Methodist Minister.

the Latest Live Stock Markets.

Toronto, June 10.—The export business this morning was unusually dult; prices ranged from $\frac{3}{2}$ to $\frac{4}{2}$c, and for the best loads $\frac{4}{2}$c; but markets are very bad in the Old Country.

For the choice butcher cattle there was a fair demand at fair prices, from $\frac{3}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{2}$c, and occasionally $\frac{3}{2}$c, per lb. Much staff changed hands around $2$ and $\frac{3}{2}$c.

Bulls, excepting the best export grades, are weak; stockers and feeders are unchanged.

Milkers—Prices ranged from $20$ to $\frac{3}{2}$0 for the ordinary run of stuff.

Sheep and lambs are unchanged in price. There is a generally fair demand, and good lambs especially are wanted, fetching from $3.50$ to $\frac{5}{2}$c and.

The market for calves is good, and anything choice will find a ready sale. Prices range from $4$ to $4.50$ each, and for extra choice $7$ will be paid.

Hogs are firm and a shade higher on a light run. The best price paid this morning was $\frac{3}{2}$c, with a very close call for $\frac{5}{2}$c, and still higher figures may be looked for. For light hogs the price is $6$; thick fat, $4$; sows, $10$ $\frac{3}{2}$; and stags, $2$ to $2$; oper lb. All grades are in good demand, excepting stores.

East Buffalo, N. Y., June 10.—Cattle—A mixed load of milk cows and butcher stuff sold at about steady prices; the feeling is only fair, and prospects barely favorable for nextweek's trade. Veals and calves—Prices strong, with prime veals full steady, the tops of the veals selling at $5.75$, with good to choice veals $5.25$ to $5.50$. Sheep and lamb—Market for lambs strong; native lambs, choice to prime, $$5.10$ to $5.51$; good to choice, $4.55$ to $5.5$; common to good, on, $4.45$ to $4.65$; culls to common lambs, $3.50$ to $4.25$; export lambs, $5.15$ to $5.25$;

fair to choice mixed sheep, $4 to $4.25; culls and common sheep, $2.25 to $3.50; export sheep, $4.50 to $4.60. Hogs — Demand fair and with prices generally easy to $\frac{1}{2}$ to $5 clower than yesterday; the decline being ou medium and heavy grades; good to choice Vorkers. $5 are to $3.70; mixed packers' grades, $3.67 to $3.70; medium weights. $3.65; heavy hogs, $3.00; roughs, $3.15 to $3.25.4

WESTERN ONTARIO'S SUMMER RE-SORT.

"THE FRASER."

PORT STANLEY, ONTARIO. (ESTABLISHED 27 YEARS.)

(ESTABLISHED 27 YEARS.)

WAS built in 1870, and is now open for the sesson. People who have heretofore gone to the expense and inconvenience of long and wearisome trips to the seaside, and other distant summer resorts, are gradually awakening to the fact that they have near their own doors one of the pretiest spots on the Continent, where they can obtain all the advantages of a summer outing—lovely climete, bathing, boating and sailing—without the discomforts of railway travel. The Fraser House is situated most pleasantly upon a lofty hill overlooking Lake Erie from a height of 159 feet, and commanding a magnificent view of the beautiful scenery surrounding it on every side.

The handsome diming-room of "The Fraser bas a seating capacity for 200 guests. The proprietor recently erected an addition to the House, which will increase the accommodation by ten rooms. The bar room has been removed from the hotel, and a barber shop and other accessories have been provided.

Three Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway trains leave the Port daily, connecting at London and at St. Thomas, running east, west and north to all important points.
