Watching for 'Pa.

Three little forms in the twilight gray Scanning the shadows across the way; Six little eyes, four black and too blue, Brimful of love, and happiness too, Watching for 'pa.

May with her placid and thoughtful brow, Gentle face beaming with smiles just new. Willie, the rogue, so loving and gay, Steals sly kisses from sister May, Watching for 'pa.

Nelly with ringlets of sunny hue, Cosily nestled between the two, Pressing her cheek to the window-pane Wishing the absent one home again, Watching for 'pa,

Oh! how they gaze at the passers-by; " He's coming at last," they gaily cry; "Try again, my pets!" exclaims mamma, And Nellie adds, "There's the twilight star Watching for 'pa.'

Jack nods and smiles, as with busy feet He lights the lamps of their quiet street; That sweet little group he knows full well May and Willie, with golden-haired Nell, Watching for 'pa.

Soon joyous shouts from the window seat, And eager patter of childish feet. Gay musical chimes ring through the hall, A manly voice resounds to the call "Welcome, papa."

As the pleasure to announce that his Writing
Academy, No. 49 GRANVILTE STREET, (Christian Messenger office building) is open every day and evening for instruction in writing.
The method of instruction commends itself to every one, inasmuch as it simply seeks to improve upon the original handwriting of the pupil, instead of attempting to impart a new system of penmanship.

By pursuing this course persons of any age, By pursuing this course persons of any age, however imperfect their waiting, may acquire, in a few lessons, a permanent, elegant, and rapid style of writing, eminently adapted either to mercantile or professional pursuits—the Chunting House, the Office, or private correspondence.
