One of the greatest of historical works, in this large type, finely illustrated, the best edition ever issued in this country, now first offered at a phenomenal Literary Revolution price. The edition in two volumes, half Morocco, is particularly recommended; students and schools will find the separate volumes in cloth very convenient.

HALLAM'S HISTORY of the MIDDLE AGES. Complete, with all the Notes, rule, but the mode of applying it to solve particular cases. Mr. Hallam's Work is eminently judicial. Its whole spirit is that of the Bench, not that of the Bar. He sums up with a calm, steady impartiality, turning neither to the right nor to the left, glossing over nothing, exaggerating nothing, while the advocates on both sides are alternately biting their lips to hear their conflicting misstatements and sophism exposed."

The Literary Revolution Catalogue (84 pages) sent free on application. Alden's publications are NOT sold by book-sellers—no discounts except to Stockholders. Books sent for examination before payment, satisfactory reference being given.

Warranted Seed. I have founded my business on the belief that the public are anxious to get their seed directly from the grower. Raising a large proportion of my seed enables me to warrant its freshness and purity, as see my Vegetable and Flower Seed Catalogue for 1888, FREE for every son and daughter of Adam. It is liberally illustrated with engravings made directly from photographs of vegetables grown on my seed farms. Besides an immense variety of standard seed, you will find in it some valuable new vegetables not found in any other catalogue. As the original introducer of the Eclipse Beet, Burbank and Early Ohio Potatoes, Hubbard Squash, Deephead Cabbage, Cory Corn, and a score of other valuable vegetables, I invite the patronage of the public. JAMES J. H. GREGORY, Marblehead, Mass.
