

Mr. Speaker reported that his Excellency had been pleased to give this answer:

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

YOUR present Address is peculiarly gratifying to me, and demands my sincere thanks.

I shall place the fullest reliance upon the loyalty and patriotism of your Constituents, and in your own zealous exertions for the public good, to enable me to repel any attempts which may be made by the Enemy upon the Coasts of this Province.

J. C. SHERBROOKE.

Then the House adjourned until To-morrow, at Nine of the Clock.

Friday, 24th July, 1812.

PRAYERS.

Mr. Pyke presented to the House an Abstract from Mr. Treasurer Wallace of the Receipts, and Payments made, at the Provincial Treasury, between the 31st December, 1811, and the 21st July, 1812, amounting to £14 340 9 8¹/₂.

Ordered, That the said Abstract do lie on the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Mr. Ritchie reported from the Committee appointed, by the Resolution of yesterday, to wait on his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, that the Committee had waited on his Excellency accordingly, and that his Excellency had been pleased to communicate certain information to the said Committee, which information he reported to the House; and thereupon,

On motion of Mr. Ritchie, resolved, that a Supply be granted for the Support of His Majesty's Government: and thereupon,

The House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of a Supply accordingly.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair,

Mr. Dimock took the Chair,

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

The Chairman reported from the Committee that they had made some progress in the business to them referred; and that the Committee had directed him to move for leave to sit again on the consideration of a Supply: which report the House agreed to.

Then the House adjourned until To-morrow, at Nine of the Clock.

Saturday, 25th July, 1812

PRAYERS.

On motion the House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House to consider further of a Supply to be granted for the support of His Majesty's Government.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair,

Mr. Dimock took the Chair,

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.
