Obituary
Mrs. W. Widner.

Early this morning there passed away to the great beyond, peacefully after a lingering illness, the beloved wife of Mr. Wesley Widner of 18 Fair avenue. To mourn the sad loss there is, beside the husband, an only daughter, Leona. The funeral will take place on Wednesday to Mt. Hope cemetery from the late residence, when the Rev. C. J. Loney will conduct the last sad rites. The sympathy of the community rests with the bereaved.

Late W. H. Jones
After a brief attack of pneumonia, William H. Jones passed away at the Brantford Hospital yesterday. The deceased was 47 years of age and a member of the First Baptist Church. He was a life long member of the Sons of England and also belonged to the A. O. U. W. He was formerly a Government Auctioneer of British Columbia and came to this city a few months ago. His wife in the Old Country and a sister in Vancouver mourn the sad loss. The funeral takes place to Greenwood cemetery from 7 Sheridan St. under the auspices of the S. O. E. to-morrow.

AT COLBORNE STREET
The various gatherings at Colborne St. Church yesterday were all large. The Brotherhood was addressed by Rev. J. J. Liddy, pastor of Wesley Church, who also preached an able sermon on the text "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." At the open session in the afternoon, an illustrated story of "Given" from Ralph Connor's Skyplot, was given by the Superintendent, Mr. C. F. Verity. Several numbers on the Victrola, illustrated by lantern slides, were very effective. It was a delightful occasion.

In the evening, Rev. Mr. Helling preached on the Virgin Mary, treating the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church and showing the place given by the New Testament to the mother of Jesus. Announcement was made of the 26th Anniversary of the Church, which is to take place next Sunday, when Revs. McClintock and Llewellyn Brown will be the preachers for the day.

P.S.A. BROTHERHOOD.
The Sunday afternoon meeting for men was held in the Congregational Church yesterday. After the opening hymn the congregation was treated to a solo by Mr. G. Crocker, which was enjoyed by all present. Rev. Mr. Snyder was the speaker for the day, his subject being "Is It Worth While?" He earnestly requested all

SUNDAY IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES

Inspiring Services Throughout City—Helpful Sermons.

WELLINGTON STREET.
At Wellington Street Church Sunday the Brotherhood speaker was Mr. A. Chrysler, who spoke on "The Relation of Music to the Church." The address was excellent and much appreciated by the men. "Evil" was the pastor's (Rev. R. D. Hamilton's) theme. This is the 8th discourse on The Lord's Prayer. A large audience was present. Messrs. J. W. Stubbins and W. G. Darwin assisted the choir in the anthem. The morning soloist was Mr. Frank Houghton, whose song "Jerusalem" (Rodney) was beautifully rendered. The Sunday School took up a Quarterly Review. Miss McIntosh played a fine piano solo for a prelude. The collection was much larger than usual. After the lesson Mr. Banton gave a brief, but very interesting talk on "Nesima." The report read by Mr. F. J. Waterson was great. Mr. Standing was absent owing to an injured knee. A most powerful sermon was delivered in the evening, by Rev. D. W. Snider, Toronto Secretary of The Lord's Day Alliance. The address revealed the magnitude of the work that this splendid organization is doing. It was closely followed by a large and appreciative congregation. The choir under Mr. Thomas Darwin, excelled themselves. The singing of "Unfold ye Portals" (Gounod's Redemption) was magnificent. Miss Ruby Cann, the popular contralto, sang a pleasing solo. Mrs. A. T. Whitaker, Mrs. (Dr.) Cooper, Messrs. Stubbins and Houghton assisted in the hymn-antiphony. The Darwin Orchestra gave a recital before the service and assisted the choir all through the evening.

MARLBORO ST. CHURCH.
Two very interesting services were held in Marlboro street Church yesterday. In the afternoon 154 scholars and visitors attended the Sabbath School which is growing in interest and numbers and speaks well for the teachers and officers of the school. In the evening, Mr. John Greet occupied the pulpit and gave a splendid address on the need of a revival. The speaker took for his text Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized, and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Rivalry are the first present day needs owing to the spiritual condition of the world to-day, even as matters stand, with all the advantages which we possess, which have come to us through the preached gospel. Some of the results of a great revival would be a successful Church in winning souls for the Kingdom of Christ and as a power in bringing men and women in touch with God's Holy Spirit and higher ideals of living, as a result. Mr. Packham sang a gospel song very pleasingly and the music given by the choir was very appropriate for the occasion.

WESLEY CHURCH.
Rev. T. E. Helling of Colborne street church preached at the morning service in Wesley church yesterday, taking as his text the words found in John 4: 1: "And I will pray the Father and he shall give you another Comforter that he may abide with you forever." The preacher took especially the word "Comforter," showing from its derivation from the Greek at many shades of meaning contained in the word; not only does it mean as in our English language "to comfort," but "a bearer of burdens, an intercessor," and that our hope of advocacy is based on the clear words of the Bible, that we have an advocate with the Father making intercession for us. Miss Corinne Chave sang very sweetly, "To Thee I Come" (ostea.)

In the evening the pastor, Rev. J. J. Liddy preached a very able sermon on the closing chapter of Christ's sermon on the Mount, "Through the Day" (Richardson), was the anthem by the choir, and a solo, "When I come to the end of the way" was very sweetly rendered by Mrs. F. Marlatt.

AT BELLE VIEW
The first religious services held in Belle View school house on the Cockshutt road took place last night. The attendance was beyond the most sanguine expectation of the most enthusiastic member of the congregation who overheard saying to another, "I was just saying to my wife that we shall very soon have to put up a church down here." The gospel singing by the congregation was very earnest and inspiring. Dr. Linscott preached a forceful and characteristic sermon, demonstrating that the greatest delusion of the devil was to persuade people that while religion was a necessary thing to have in dying, that it was too doubtful and pessimistic to live with. The speaker said that the devil had deluded the majority of people to believe that religion was like a bitter dose of medicine which the patient took to save himself from a worse thing, but that no person would take the medicine until he was compelled to do so. In his elaboration of the text, "Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace," he effectually exploded this almost universal delusion, showing that the religion of Jesus was not only necessary at death, but that it made life more worth living, and that true Christians are necessarily a happy and an optimistic people.

A Canadian Luncheon At the Y.W.C.A.

(By Cona.)

What a pretty picture greets one, as you entered the club room at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday afternoon. Seated at many tables bright with flowers, the Canadian luncheon is about to be served. The motto on the pretty menu card, with the maple leaf on the cover, was appropriate. Anticipation is the oil that feeds the flame of life—amerion.

We had anticipated much and were certainly not disappointed. At the head table were seated, Mrs. Philip Buck, who with a charming and easy manner introduced the guest of honor, Mrs. Scott Raff. First of all the National Anthem was sung and then a vocal solo by Miss Cleghorn was rendered very feelingly. Mrs. Scott Raff responded to The Drama. Her pleasing personality and presence is attractive and the gifted speaker sketched vividly the power for good of the drama from its early Greek inception until to-day. What impressed one favorably, was the clever response, to their various toasts given by our teachers of whom we are justly proud. Women of ideals; women of intellect; women whose responsible life work in moulding the lives of many is a great and noble task. The various toasts and their mottoes were as follows:

A pleasing feature was the various songs rendered so sweetly. Mrs. Adams of Burford sang with much sympathy and acceptance; Miss Marovic Sweet won laurels by her rendering with culture and sweetness Patience Johnson's songs, set so cleverly to music by Mr. Henri K. Jordan, who played her accompaniments. Mrs. W. C. Livingstone in response to "Our Club" was in a happy vein of humor, as she told a funny story that amused everyone. Miss Hollinrake, Miss Carlyle, Miss Perley, Miss Raymond and

Mrs. S. W. Secord spoke, the latter two giving very patriotic and clever talks on Canada. Miss Hollinrake's clever bouque of literature still lingers its perfume, like the rose is lasting. We congratulate the executive of the Literary Club on giving its members and others such a rare treat, "a feast of reason and a flow of soul," will long be remembered by those present. Later they adjourned upstairs, when Mrs. Scott Raff finished her season's talk on the "King and the Book." She gave her many admirers an insight into the obscure and great poems of Browning that they could not otherwise have had.
