"ON TO BERLIN" SAYS EARL DERBY

Bapaume Not the Stopping Point of the British Advance.

VOLUNTEER ARMY IS CONFIDENT.

London, July 27.—Lord Derby, Under-Secretary of War, who recently visited the British front, yesterday gave his impression of the work being done there by the British army: "I never saw such absolute confidence, not only among the officers, but all the grades, from the Generals down. Men who fifteen months ago were in counting-houses are today the finest soldiers imaginable. "After all, you cannot beat a volunteer army, where such spirit and confidence exists, for remember I should say at least ninety-three per cent. of the army are volunteers. The remainder are really only waiting for their chance to go to the front. "Great Britain is not tiring of the war. On the contrary, the country has never been more hopeful and united," said Lord Derby.

NEWS NOTES

Despite his lameness, Dr. Barany volunteered for service at the outbreak of the war, and was detailed as chief surgeon of the surgical department of a hospital in Przemysl, where there, as he modestly explains, that he was "so fortunate as to discover a new method for the treatment of head wounds," a discovery that enabled him to cure a vastly greater per centage of cases than before.

For four weeks after the fall of Przemysl the Russian commander allowed the Austrian physicians to remain. Then in transports of about 100 they were sent to various parts of Russia, many to Siberia, Turkestan. Unlike many others, Dr. Barany on his return has reported almost universally good treatment in captivity, treatment that included a sufficiency of decent food, liberty not too restricted, and pleasant professional relations with Russian commanders and colleagues. Dr. Barany has given fairly ample opportunity to study, to practice, and to lecture on his specialty to Russian and captive Austrian physicians.
