SMALL POX IN KINGS COUNTY

SMALL POX IN KINGS COUNTY

It is again Kings County's misfortune to be visited by Small Pox. This time, it is at Woodside a few miles from Canning By reports it was brought here from Boston by a daughter of Mr. Simon Wood who was here on a visit. She left a tew days ago for home and shortly after Mr. Wood was taken sick which was pronounced Small Pox. The authorities were notified and the house and the house of his daughters on the North Mouretain and at Scotts Bay were quarantined, as they had made visits to their father and are now down with the disease.

The people in that vicinity have the sympathy of the County in their sad misfortune.
